through Him, I say, whether things on earth or things in heaven.

2 Cor 5:18-19; Colossians 1:21-29

v. 21 And although you were formerly alienated and enemies in mind and in evil deeds,

v. 22 but now He reconciled you in the body of His flesh through death, in order to present you before Him holy and blameless and beyond reproach— [_____]

1 Cor 1:30-31

v. 23 if indeed you continue in the faith firmly grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which you have heard, which was proclaimed in all creation under heaven, and of which I, Paul, was made a minister.

v. 24 Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and I fill up what is lacking of Christ's afflictions in my flesh, on behalf of His body, which is the church,

v. 25 of which I was made a minister according to the stewardship from God given to me for you, so that I might fully carry out the preaching of the word of God, 26 that is, the mystery which has been hidden from the past ages and generations, but has now been manifested to His saints, 27 to whom God willed to make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Acts 10

Colossians 1:28-29 Him we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man with all wisdom, so that we may present every man complete in Christ. 29 For this purpose I also labor, striving according to His working, which He works in me in power.
