Theology Proper (Part 1)

What is Theology Proper?

The Existence of God:

How can we know that God exists?

What other natural “proofs” might be helpful in affirming the existence of God? Are these sufficient like Scripture?

1. The Cosmological argument (The First Cause) –
2. The Teleological argument (The Argument from Design) –
3. The Moral argument –
4. The Argument from Life (The Law of Biogenesis) –
5. Pascal’s Wager –

The Knowability of God:

To what degree can we know God?

What does it mean that God is incomprehensible?

The Attributes of God:

What does it mean that God has “incommunicable” attributes?

What are some of the “incommunicable” attributes of God?

1. He is Independent (aseity) –
2. He is Immutable –
3. He is Infinite/Omnipresent –
4. He is Eternal –
5. He is Omniscient –
6. He is Omnipotent –
7. He is Perfect –

What does it mean that God has “communicable” attributes?

What are some of the “communicable” attributes of God?

1. He is Holy –
2. He is Righteous –
3. He is Just –
4. He is Love –

5. He is Merciful –
6. He is Gracious –
7. He is Longsuffering –
8. He is Wise –
9. He is Truthful –
10. He is Faithful –
11. He is Good –

Conclusion:

It's important to note that God does not have a "primary" attribute!

All of God's attributes work completely in harmony so as to not let one override the other.
