WELCOME TO Generations of Grace

This curriculum has been designed to deepen your own study of God's word so that you might be able to properly understand and accurately teach each lesson. It's our prayer that this curriculum would be a blessing to your ministry and home as God uses it to edify your teachers, evangelize your children, and encourage your families.

Review the Lesson

The Activity Book provides age-appropriate activities corresponding to the lesson. Each activity includes key truths from the lesson.

- Ages 3-5 Activity – Creative activities, such as dot-to-dot, tracing, comparisons, mazes and other activities, to introduce, illustrate, and apply the lesson.
- Ages 6+ Activities – Provides appropriate activities, such as crossword puzzles, word searches, decoding, and more, to introduce, illustrate, and apply the lesson.
- See What You Know – Reviews what the child learned from the lesson.

Additional Resources

Use these additional resources to help support your lessons and to knit together the church and the home, ensuring that what is taught on Sunday matches what is learned throughout the week.

- Teacher Book
- Coloring Book
- Craft Book
- Student Journal
- Family Devotional

EASTER LESSON 3

The Son of Man is resurrected • Luke 23:50–24:53

Maze

According to the Scriptures Jesus would suffer and on the third day rise from the dead. Furthermore repentance and forgiveness would be proclaimed in His name to all the nations. Help the apostles get to the nations.

NATIONS

Because the resurrection is so essential to the gospel, the disciples preached it regularly (Acts 2:22–32). So must we.

The resurrection is essential to the gospel. If Jesus did not rise from the dead, He could not forgive sins or give eternal life to anyone. He would not be the Son of God, and He would not be able to help believers. He has destroyed the power of sin and death. As the Lord of life, He offers life to anyone who repents.

ACTIVITY ANSWERS

What's the Difference?

First, biblical faith is not blind faith. Second, biblical faith includes the fear of God. Third, biblical faith is trust in the LORD alone as God. Fourth, biblical faith does not stop with recognizing God's supremacy—it presses on until it rests upon God's mercy. Fifth, true faith cares for others. Sixth, true faith takes action, even at great risk.

Message: God is still King even when His people reject Him.

Question:

Although Saul was not a godly king, the next king, David, was a man after God's own heart. Through David the prophesied King would come—Jesus, the King of kings.

Page 64

Heart 1: It was wrong because Israel was called to be holy as God is holy. They were called to be different because God is different (Lev 20:26). But they wanted a king in order to be like all the nations around them (1 Sam 8:20).

Heart 2: God was the one who went before them and fought their battles (Exod 14:14; Deut 3:22; Josh 10:14). God was still sovereign, in control of everything.

Questions:

God's discipline is just: the punishment fits the crime.

David demanded that the rich man pay the appropriate penalty, four lambs in exchange for one (Exod 22:1). So too would David pay the just penalty for his sin—four sons in exchange for one (2 Sam 12:18; 13:29; 18:14–15; 1 Kgs 2:25). Also, since he had violated a man's daughter, so his own daughter would be violated (2 Sam 13). He had taken a man's wife in secret, but his own wives would be taken in public (16:20–22).

Connect the Dots

Even though the immediate danger had passed and the people could return to work, Nehemiah guarded against potential attacks (Neh 4:16-23). Nehemiah never trusted in the people's strength to defeat the enemy. But he trusted that the LORD would fight for Israel (Neh 4:20; cf. Josh 10:14, 42; 23:10).

Questions:

Repentance is to turn away from sin. Characteristics of repentance include a recognition of sin, a remorse over sin, a rejection of sin, and a submission to God.

The law could not save the Israelites in Nehemiah's day. Its purpose is to expose sin by displaying God's holiness. But it cannot save from sin. There is only one person who can save us from sin—Jesus Christ.

6. False
7. Godly sorrow is true sadness because we know how much our sin offends the holy God. It is produced by the Holy Spirit (2 Tim 2:25) and is an essential part of true repentance.
8. What the Law or Nehemiah could not do—save people from their sin—God did “by sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, in order that the righteous requirement of the law might be fulfilled in us” (Rom

8:3-4).

10. To turn away from sin and submit to God. (Student's personal answer can expand)

Double Puzzle Phrase: Jesus came to live and die for His people.

Page 176

Tiles Answer: Jesus was born to save, but He was also born to be rejected, suffering and dying at the hands of wicked men.

Questions:

The Messiah literally means anointed one, the one appointed by God both to save and to rule.

Salvation is a broad term, the complete undoing of sin and the curse that first came into the world in Genesis 3.

First, Simeon identified Jesus as Israel's consolation (Luke 2:25). Second, Simeon identified Jesus as the Lord's Messiah (Luke 2:26). Third, Simeon rejoiced that Jesus is God's salvation (Luke 2:30). Fourth, Simeon rejoiced that Jesus came to save both Jews and Gentiles (Luke 2:31-32). Fifth, Simeon warned that Jesus was destined for conflict (Luke 2:34-35; cf. 12:51). Anna called Jesus the redemption of Jerusalem (2:38), the One who would rescue and deliver His people.

Message: Jesus died as a substitute in the place of sinners.

Tiles Answer: Jesus is the lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world (John 1:29) and Hsi people's Passover lamb (1 Cor 5:7).

Questions:

To be unblemished is to be without any flaw.

Atonement is paying the ransom price for sin and washing sins away to make peace between God and man.

Like the Passover lamb, Jesus lived with those He came to die for (John 1:14). He was slaughtered at the same time as the Passover lambs (Luke 23:44). His blood causes God's wrath to pass over His people forever (Rom 5:9). He is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world (John 1:29).

Questions:
The resurrection is Christ's return from death to life.
Because Jesus has risen from the dead, He has destroyed the power of sin and death. As the Lord of life, He offers life to anyone who repents.
