Send out your light and your truth;
let them lead me;
let them bring me to your holy hill

Then I will go to the altar of God,

O God, my God.

THIS IS THE DAY

CHORUS

This is the day that the Lord has made. We will re-joyce as we lift his name. This is the day that the Lord has made. Come and re-joyce, we will re-joyce and be glad in it.

Now I can walk by faith, you will direct my way. Your everyou are good and this is the day you made. Whether in life or death, whether in work is good and this is the day you made. I am a child of yours, you are the one who saves. I am re-deemed by blood and this is the day you made.

* affirmation of faith

Leader: What do the Scriptures teach concerning faith and good works?
All: They teach that this faith is bound to bring forth good fruits, and that it is necessary to do good works commanded by God, because of God's will,
but that we should not rely on those works to merit justification before God.
For remission of sins and justification is apprehended by faith,
as also the voice of Christ attests:
When ye shall have done all these things, say:
We are unprofitable servants.
The same is also taught by the Fathers.
For Ambrose says:
It is ordained of God that he who believes in Christ is saved, freely receiving remission of sins, without works, by faith alone.

CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN

Leader: Behold, you delight in truth in the inward being, and you teach me wisdom in the secret heart.

— Psalm 51:6 ESV

Let us confess our sins to the Lord.

All: Lord, you are our Shepherd, yet we still want.
You promise us rest, but we refuse to be still.
You are our righteousness, but we look to our own works.
You are with us, but yet we still fear and do not trust your promises of protection and cower at our enemies.
Lord, forgive us.
Cause us to embrace your goodness and mercy
that we may truly believe that you will be with us all the days of our life.
We pray this in the name of our Lord, Christ Jesus. Amen.

— Adapted from Psalm 23

Please reflect and silently confess your sins.

ASSURANCE OF GRACE **

Leader: If you, O LORD, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?

All: But with you there is forgiveness, that you may be feared.

— Psalm 130:3 ESV

This is the Word of the Lord.
All: Thanks be to God!

The offering is an act of worship by which we express our gratitude to God for his grace in Jesus Christ. Having received every spiritual blessing in him, we joyfully dedicate a portion of what he entrusted to us for support of his church and the advance of the gospel.

 doxology

All: Praise God from whom all blessings flow

ministry moment

An officer of the church prays for the world, nation, community, and church.

Leader: All these mercies we ask in the name of Jesus, who prayed saying,
All: Our Father who is in heaven, hallowed be your name;
Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
Forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors,
Do not lead us into temptation, but deliver us from evil,
For yours is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever, Amen.

* passing the peace

Leader: Jesus said, “Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.” In a world filled with trouble, let us encourage one another to look to the one who has overcome the world. May the peace of Christ be with you.
All: And also with you.

While your children are welcome and encouraged to worship with you, at this time they may be dismissed to Children’s Church Time for ages 3-5.

If you would like to hear more about CPC or would like to let us know of a prayer need, please include your contact information or prayer request in the welcome pad when it comes around to you.

An elder will lead the passing of the peace. Greet one another warmly with the peace of Christ.

Sermon | “Walking in His Ways”

July 5, 2026

Deuteronomy 8:1-10 ^{ESV} | 1 “The whole commandment that I command you today you shall be careful to do, that you may live and multiply, and go in and possess the land that the LORD swore to give to your fathers. 2 And you shall remember the whole way that the LORD your God has led you these forty years in the wilderness, that he might humble you, testing you to know what was in your heart, whether you would keep his commandments or not. 3 And he humbled you and let you hunger and fed you with manna, which you did not know, nor did your fathers know, that he might make you know that man does not live by bread alone, but man lives by every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD. 4 Your clothing did not wear out on you and your foot did not swell these forty years. 5 Know then in your heart that, as a man disciplines his son, the LORD your God disciplines you. 6 So you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God by walking in his ways and by fearing him. 7 For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land, a land of brooks of water, of fountains and springs, flowing out in the valleys and hills, 8 a land of wheat and barley, of vines and fig trees and pomegranates, a land of olive trees and honey, 9 a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing, a land whose stones are iron, and out of whose hills you can dig copper. 10 And you shall eat and be full, and you shall bless the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.”

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.

All: Thanks be to God!

* gospel charge

RULING ELDER TUMOLIN

Leader: In response to the Word we have heard, how ought we live?

All: You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden... let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

— Matthew 5:14-16_{ESV}

WELCOME TO HIS TABLE

The Lord's Supper is a family meal for Christians — a time when we delight in Christ and in the good news that his work alone has made us right with God. All baptized Christians who trust in Christ alone as their Savior, belong to a church that embraces the gospel, and seek strength to live more faithfully to Christ are invited to participate. If you are not a Christian, or if you are not prepared to share in this meal, please use this time to meditate on the following prayer.

Lord Jesus Christ, I admit that I am weaker and more sinful than I ever dared admit, but through you I am more loved and accepted than I ever dared hope. I thank you for paying my debt on the cross, taking what I deserved in order to offer me complete forgiveness. Knowing that you have been raised from the dead, I turn from my sins and receive you as my Savior and Lord. Amen.

Please remain seated for communion. As a symbol of our unity in Christ, wait until everyone has been served the elements, and we will all partake together. Once you are finished with your cup, please pass it to the inside aisles and the ushers will retrieve them.

If you have a gluten allergy, there are gluten-free wafers available in the center of the bread trays.

Please note: Wine is served in tinted cups on the outer rings of the tray. Juice is in clear cups in the middle.

NOTE TO PARENTS: To receive communion, a child must have been baptized, publicly professed their faith in Christ, and been formally received as a communing member by the elders of this church or the governing body of the church to which you belong. We look forward to welcoming your children to the table when they come to this point and ask that you speak to the pastor when you feel your child is ready to begin the process of becoming a communing member.

WORDS OF INSTITUTION

And as they were eating, he took bread, and after blessing it broke it and gave it to them, and said, “Take; this is my body.” And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank of it. And he said to them, “This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many.”

— Mark 14:22-24^{ESV}

Minister: Lift up your hearts.

All: We lift them up to the Lord.

Minister: Let us give thanks unto our Lord God.

All: What we have received is not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit who is from God, so that we may understand what God has freely given us. This is what we speak, not in words taught us by human wisdom but in words taught by the Spirit, explaining spiritual realities with Spirit taught words.

As the elements are distributed and the instrumentals are played, please use the opportunity to contemplate Christ's giving himself for you and consider how you might respond to the lovingkindness expressed by the King of Kings through his selfless sacrifice.

TO GOD BE THE GLORY

join us for summer sunday school!

Classes for all ages will meet July 5, 12, 19, and 26, 915-1015. The class descriptions are listed below. We'd love for you to join us as we grow together in God's Word. We hope to see you there!

Nursery – Babies and toddlers ages 6 months–2 years are welcome to join us during the Sunday school hour. We seek to create an environment of care and love. We will be continuing our way through the Bible stories in Genesis. Each coloring page comes with an activity and we are beginning to learn the catechism for young children. We come alongside them and help little ones take first steps in learning about God through prayer, question and answer formative teaching, and teaching foundational Bible vocabulary.

Preschool-Kindergarten – There is nothing more important for the younger ones than imparting to them a concrete understanding of the gospel and the history of redemption. This summer our 3-5 year olds will be continuing their study through Pastor Kevin DeYoung's The Biggest Storybook (an adapted age appropriate version of the book our elementary kids are studying). Children will be encouraged by God's love and faithfulness to his people in the book of Acts.

Elementary - The 1st-5th graders will be continuing their second year of study through the curriculum based on The Biggest Story Bible Storybook by Pastor Kevin DeYoung. They have faithfully studied Genesis-Acts and will continue their study through the book of Acts this summer. The children are learning about God's grand story of redemption and discovering how every story and every lesson points them to their Savior.

Youth - A 4-week inductive study using the OICA method: God speaks to us through his Word. This summer, we'll aim to listen closely. Over four weeks we'll take a single psalm and move through Observation, Interpretation, Correlation, and Application. Come invigorate, or even discover, the skill that turns Bible reading from a habit into a hunger.
