

BIBLE STUDY METHODS

An introduction to the methods of biblical study to improve one's confidence with the Scriptures, love for God, and maturity in the faith.

Class Objectives

Head

- To become familiar with a proven method of biblical study.
- To identify different methods of interpretation including historical, cultural, and grammatical considerations.
- To identify pitfalls and learn to avoid hazards in biblical study.

Heart

- To grow in love for the Lord.
- To grow in love for God's Word.
- To experience improved confidence in reading the Bible.

Hands

- To apply Biblical truth to our lives.
- To encourage our family and friends.
- To encourage others in your discipleship groups.

Class Participation

- Homework
- Group Discussions
- Lectures

Schedule

February 16th

Session 1 - Why Study The Bible?

February 23rd

Session 2 - Observation

March 2nd

Session 3 - Interpretation

March 9th

Session 4 - Application