SUNDAY GROUPS

PSALMS: A POETIC ENGAGEMENT WITH GOD

Meets at 8:45 a.m. in Room 237

This group will be walking through the Psalms one at a time, looking at how the writers of these psalms engaged with God through poetry.

Taught by Jordan Telman

HEBREWS BIBLE STUDY

Meets at 10:45 a.m. in Room 206

This group will come together to study, Hebrews, one of the least-read and most-challenging books of the New Testament. It contains some of more hotly debated passages in all of the Bible. And yet, it is the bedrock for some of the most important doctrines of the Christian faith. Our approach will be an inductive study where we'll attempt to draw-out the meaning of the text from investigation and observation. Each participant will be encouraged to dig-in and wrestle with the Biblical text resulting in the joy and fellowship that comes from discovery and application of God's truth, which He wants us to know and by which He will change our lives.

Taught by Mike Huber & Stuart Stanton

NEW BELIEVERS CLASS

Meets at 10:45 a.m. in Room 237

This class will tackle topics for new believers including: knowing you are saved eternally, an overview of the Bible and how to study it, prayer, fellowship, spiritual gifts, temptation, guidance, and the Holy Spirit. If you are a new Christian or young in the faith, or simply want a refresher on the basics, please join us!

Taught by Kirt Kisling
