

Wisdom and unity among pastors, elders,
and ministry staff.

Strength and rest for leaders balancing many responsibilities.

Sensitivity to the Lord's leading in all meetings and plans.

Courage to make faithful decisions even when difficult.

That every child will encounter the love of Jesus personally.

For a new facility that inspires curiosity and learning about Jesus.

For a a host of passionate and patient volunteers who will love and lead kids.

For the children who come here, because of what they've encountered here, to be a light in their families and the world.

Grateful hearts of God's past and present provision.

Joyful spirit of giving across the congregation.

Freedom from worry, fear, or comparison.

Faith that God will meet every need in this project.

That our giving deepens our trust in God.

Safety for every worker, volunteer, and visitor.

Favorable weather and protection from delays.

Timely delivery of materials and steady progress.

Excellence and integrity in every detail of construction.

That the finished structure will bring glory to God.

That hearts in our neighborhoods would be open to Jesus.

That our neighbors would feel welcomed and loved.

That we would be able to serve and meet community needs.
