Philippians 1:21-23

1. Share with your group how you would finish this phrase, “Living is _____. Dying is _____.” Was there a time when you were hard-pressed between the two? How?

---

---

---

---

2. What is the “fruitful labor” in Phil 1:22? In what ways can a life bear fruit? Are there other Bible passages that encourage believers to aspire to a life of knowing Christ and making Christ known?

---

---

---

---

3. How does death become “gain” for a believer (see Phil 3:7-8)? How does our heavenly citizenship affect our earthly citizenship as we straddle these two realms?

---

---

---

---

4. How does the tension of living for Christ in this world and the desire to be with Christ in the next exist in your life? How can we help each other in the midst of this tension?

---

---

---

---

5. What opportunities can you seek this week to know Christ better and make Christ known to others?
