Welcome and Opening Prayer

Congregational Singing:

89 Amazing Grace! How Sweet the Sound

Amazing Grace! how sweet the sound That saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost but now am found, Was blind, but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear The hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils and snares I have already come;
'Tis grace hath brought me safe thus far, And grace will lead me home.

The Lord has promised good to me, His word my hope secures;
He will my shield and portion be As long as life endures.

When we've been there ten thousand years, Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise Than when we first begun.

98 My Worth Is Not in What I Own

My worth is not in what I own, Not in the strength of flesh and bone,
But in the costly wounds of love, At the cross.

My worth is not in skill or name, In win or lose, in pride or shame,
But in the blood of Christ that flowed, At the cross.

I rejoice in my Redeemer, Greatest Treasure, Wellspring of my Soul.
I will trust in Him, no other; My soul is satisfied in Him alone.

My Worth Is Not in What I Own (continued)

As summer flowers we fade and die; Fame, youth and beauty hurry by,
But life eternal calls to us, At the cross.

I will not boast in wealth or might, Or human wisdom's fleeting light,
But I will boast in knowing Christ, At the cross.

I rejoice in my Redeemer, Greatest Treasure, Wellspring of my Soul.
I will trust in Him, no other; My soul is satisfied in Him alone.

Two wonders here that I confess: My worth and my unworthiness,
My value fixed, my ransom paid, At the cross.

I rejoice in my Redeemer, Greatest Treasure, Wellspring of my Soul.
I will trust in Him, no other; My soul is satisfied in Him alone. (2x)
