Bible Story Review Statements

- "One day after Jesus had been teaching, a man with a skin disease came up to Him and asked Jesus to heal him." (Answer: Jesus heals a man with a skin disease.)
- "Another day, Jesus was out and some adults brought their kids to see Jesus." (Answer: Jesus invites the children to come and He blesses them.)
- "On a different day, Jesus was invited to Matthew's house to eat dinner. Matthew was a tax collector who worked for the Romans. Matthew's job was to take money from the Jewish people to give to the Romans. His neighbors did not like him." (Answer: Jesus eats at the tax collector's home.)
- "When the families brought their kids to see Jesus, Jesus' own disciples tried to turn them away." (Answer: Jesus invites the children to come and He blesses them.)
- "The man who had a skin disease asked Jesus for help." (Answer: Jesus heals a man with a skin disease.)
- "The religious leaders who knew Jesus was eating dinner with the tax collector, Matthew, and his friends, wanted to know why Jesus would bother to eat with people who had made bad choices." (Answer: Jesus eats at the tax collector's home.)
- "When Jesus saw that the disciples were trying to turn away the families and their children, He stopped them and invited the children to come to Him." (Answer: Jesus invites the children to come and He blesses them.)
- "Jesus heard the religious leaders asking why He would eat with sinners, so Jesus explained that He had not come to get people who think they are already right with God to follow Him, but to get the people who were sinners to follow Him." (Answer: Jesus eats at the tax collector's home.)
- "When Jesus gathered the children to Him, He blessed them and told the disciples not to discourage children to come to Him. He showed everyone who was there how much He loved the children." (Answer: Jesus invites the children to come and He blesses them.)
- "Jesus actually reached out and touched the sick man everyone else was afraid to be near. Jesus showed kindness to the man with the skin disease by healing him. Because of Jesus' kindness, the man was now able to return home to his family." (Answer: Jesus heals the man with a skin disease.)
