Review Questions:

1. A parable is another word for what? (a story)
2. What was the second question the religious expert asked Jesus? (Who is my neighbor?)
3. Where did the story Jesus told take place? (a road from Jerusalem to Jericho)
4. How did the Samaritan go above and beyond in helping the injured man? (He bandaged the man, took him on his own donkey to an inn, and paid for the injured man to be cared for.)
5. Who beat up the man in the story? (robbers)
6. Name one of the people who walked past the injured Samaritan. (a priest and a Levite)
7. Why do you think the priest and the Levite walked away from someone who clearly needed help? (answers will vary)
8. Why was it so unusual for a Samaritan to stop and tend to the Jewish man who was hurt? (Samaritans and Jews did not like each other; they usually avoided each other.)
9. What is one thing you learn from this parable? (answers will vary)
10. Which person in the story did Jesus tell the religious leaders they should be like? Why? (The one who felt sorry for the injured man; answers will vary.)
11. Who is your neighbor? (anyone who needs our help, anyone we meet)
