- A. Nabal lived in Carmel with his wife, Abigail, and his many goats and sheep.
- B. David and his men were camped out near Nabal's flocks, and took care of them, keeping them safe from harm.
- C. David sent some of his men to ask Nabal for anything he wanted to share with them since they had helped keep Nabal's sheep safe.
- D. Abigail made peace with David. Because of her courage and kindness, she prevented a terrible fight between him and Nabal.
- E. David responded with anger as well and made plans to attack Nabal's home.
- F. When it was shearing time, Nabal was going to throw a big party. David thought he and his men deserved to be included since they had helped protect the sheep.
- G. Nabal responded with anger, instead of assistance. He sent David's men back empty-handed.
- H. Abigail heard of the feud, and packed a bag of food and supplies to bring to David and his men.
- I. Nabal was rich, mean, and selfish. Abigail was wise and kind.
