

Believe

By Taylor Braswell on January 25

READING: Luke 17

When some people think of Jesus, they only think of John 3:16. They know that God loves the world and sent Jesus to die for them. People know Jesus performed miracles and most think he was a loving person. Although this is true, many people ignore what Jesus had to say about God's wrath, sin and the coming judgement.

In Luke 17:20-37, Jesus reminds us that most people will reject Him. Many people want Jesus to let them live however they want, and if God's Word says otherwise, they do not think that is very loving. Jesus points us back to the time of Noah. By the time people saw the storm coming, they had not believed God and it was too late. People were eating, drinking and getting married, and did not believe God's judgement was coming. Jesus also points us back to the days of Lot, when people were worried about their careers and businesses. By the time it rained down with fire, it was too late. Lot's wife longed for the things of this world and turned back to look at what she was commanded to look away from.

God is still speaking to us through His Word today! God wants us to believe Him so we can have life. Christians believe that what God offers us will satisfy us more than what the world offers us. Christians believe that God's design for our lives is good and perfect. It can be easy to forget that our God is a righteous, good judge who does not tolerate sin. Believer, you should want everyone you meet to know they can have eternal life if they believe Jesus took their punishment on the cross.

PRAYER: God, forgive me for not always taking sin as seriously as You do. Remind me each day that those around me remain under Your wrath if they do not trust in Jesus. Use me as proof that believing in You leads to life.

TOMORROW'S READING: Luke 18
