

Adult Bible Fellowship Class Evaluation

ABF Class Evaluation

Is my class producing any new believers?

Are there any specific barriers or obstacles preventing me or my class from reaching lost people?

Do you have a list of prospects that you and your class are pursuing for Sunday school?

The best prospects are the FRANs (Friends, Relatives, Associates, and Neighbors) of those who your class.

Encourage every member to develop a list that identifies their FRANs.

ABF Class Evaluation

Has my class broken the 80% space rule?

Growth experts report once a class exceeds 80% of its' space requirement, the class will quit growing and eventually decline. If a classroom is 15 ft. x 12 ft. (180 square feet), the 80% amount is 144 square feet ($180 \times .80$). The maximum number of adults that classroom should hold without breaking the 80% rule is 14 (144 divided by 10).

Does your class have empty chairs reserved for visitors?

You should always have empty chairs for visitors, even if you have to squeeze it in!

ABF Class Evaluation

Have you given up on some of your prospects?

Some growth experts suggest that it takes an average of 20 contacts to get a person to an ABF for the first time. Don't give on absentees or inactive members.

Is my class producing any new leaders?

Does my class have leaders in it, but they are not willing to leave the class in order to serve?