

A Promise Kept

By Taylor Braswell on August 4, 2021

TODAY'S READING: Hebrews 6

Promises are hard to keep. When I was in high school I promised my friend, David, we would go skydiving together. I really wanted to go skydiving at the time, but as I grew older, I felt differently. I did not keep my promise because just a few years after making the promise, I had no desire to go skydiving. In verse 13 of Hebrews 6, the author is talking about Genesis 22:16-17. God promised He would bless Abraham and his offspring. When the Israelites made a promise, it was founded on their own word. When we make promises, they are founded on our own word. When God makes a promise, He swears by His own name, which guarantees the fulfillment of His promises! God cannot lie and does not stray from the truth because He is truth! God is unchanging and eternally good. We can entrust our lives to God because He is our faithful promise-keeping Father. In life we will be let down and people will change. It is okay when we feel we are not in control of our lives because like an anchor, God provides stability. The all-powerful, loving creator of the universe is in control of our lives and has made a way for us to be saved through His Son. Jesus has gone before us to satisfy the just demands of the Father and through His blood we have eternal life.

PRAYER: Father, You are unchanging and sovereign. Remind me each day that You are in control of my life. Thank You for always being faithful to me. Thank You that I have access to You through the blood of Your Son. Help me anchor my soul in You.
