A Churchwide Focus

September 13—October 18, 2015

Not everyone who says to me, “Lord, Lord,” will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only he who does the will of my Father who is in heaven. Many will say to me on that day, “Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and perform many miracles?” Then I will tell them plainly, “I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers!”

Matthew 7:21-23

In a day when the basics of becoming and being a Christian are so maligned by the culture and misunderstood in the church, we are convinced that there’s more to Jesus than the routine religion we’re tempted to settle for at every turn. Moreover, we are persuaded that when we take a serious look at what Jesus really meant when He said, “Follow me” (Matthew 4:19), we’ll discover that there’s far more pleasure to be experienced in Him, indescribably greater power to be realized with Him, and a much higher purpose to be accomplished for Him than anything this world has to offer. And as a result, we will all—every Christian—eagerly, willingly and gladly lose our lives to know and proclaim Christ, for this is simply what it means to follow Him.

Sign-ups begin in August for a six-week focus which includes a special sermon series as well as small group studies and daily devotional studies from David Platt’s book, Follow Me. Let me encourage you to prioritize this study and this focus as a way to catalyze great growth in your personal walk with the Lord and your impact upon the world! I am looking forward to growing together in our understanding and application of what it means to Follow Christ!

Midweek Connection: Options for Kids

Wednesdays, 6:15-7:45 p.m.

August 26—November 11

First Serve

First Serve is on the adult class options, but is also open to children if they are attending with at least one parent. This "class" gives all FBCers an opportunity to do hands-on ministry projects each Wednesday night. Deadline to sign up is 8/23 and the one-time suggested donation is $10/family to off-set the cost of the projects.

Bible Drill

Children in grades 2-5 who have a parent attending a mid-week class have the opportunity to participate in Bible Drill. Kids will master locating Bible books and key passages. They will memorize the books of the Bible, selected verses and where to find key Scripture passages. Overall, they will learn how to apply the Bible more directly to their own lives. Children will be most successful with significant parent support and help at home between classes.

\*This is a full year (August-April) opportunity.*

Older children participate in church, association and state drills in the spring.

Infant—5th Graders of parents attending a mid-week class

Children who do not attend First Serve with a parent will be in classes on First World & Uptown Halls on Wednesday nights. The projects, Bible stories, activities, music and crafts are TBD based on sign-ups that end on 8/23. NOTE: Volunteers needed for these rooms!!

Sign-ups are happening NOW for all of these opportunities at the table in the Worship Center lobby!!

First Step Class

A new Christian class for kids & at least one parent

This one-time class is offered approximately every other month. It is designed for children ages 7 & up (who have already made a salvation decision) and is an FBCFM prerequisite to baptism. Content includes discussion, teaching, Q & A on salvation and baptism.

At least one parent should attend with each child. Children are not automatically added to the class list ... it is the responsibility of the parent to sign up each child.

Next Opportunity:

Sunday, August 30, 11:00 a.m.

Please call the church office or email Natalie \(nsavader@fbcfm.com\) by Thursday, 8/27 if your child plans to attend ... there is a sign-up minimum of 3 children.

Hit The Right Note

8:30 a.m.

If you volunteer on ANY Children's Ministry Team, you are invited & needed to attend this special event!!

We value our volunteers tremendously. Please do not miss this important event full of amazing food, encouragement, new information, critical reminders and over-the-top giveaways.

High School Leadership Team

The due date for leadership team applications for next year's team has been extended until August 9. Late applications will not be considered, no exceptions. You can sign up for an interview through August 9. Please check with your references to see that they have been submitted and make sure we have all your forms.

Engage Fort Mill

Engage Fort Mill is August 10-13. Sign-ups are underway. We will meet in the Fellowship Hall at 9:00 a.m. each morning, divide into teams and then head to the schools. Our end time will be 2:00 p.m. and we will head back to the church around 2:30. Remember to bring a sack lunch. Drinks will be provided.

High School D Groups

High School D Groups will officially begin Sunday, August 23. High school students will no longer meet at the church first but will go directly to the homes of their leaders. This change will cut down on the time spent transporting students. For families with both middle school and high school students, staff will be at the church to receive middle school students early enough to allow time to take high school students to the homes of their leaders.

Sunday Night Live

The Sunday Night Live schedule for middle school students has not changed. We will meet at the church at 6:00 p.m. for a snack supper. Bible study will begin at 6:30 p.m. and conclude at 7:30 p.m. Parents, if you meet with an adult life group we will remain on campus with your student until you arrive to pick them up.

10 Worship Guidelines from the Early Church

Dr. Lee Martin McDonald

www.worshipleader.com

Renowned New Testament scholar Dr. Lee McDonald offers us a brief rundown of what worship looked like in the early church, so we can learn from our first-century brothers and sisters.

- 1. Worship Involves Sacrifice In New Testament times, worship consisted initially of sacrifice (of animals). However, the focus of worship for Christians is on self-sacrifice in honor and adoration of Christ (Mark 8:34-36). Worship appears to be the total response of grateful persons to the grace of God that comes to us in the work of Jesus Christ (see Romans 12:1-2). It is no longer related to the temple notion of animal sacrifice, but rather, in Christ the whole Church has become a temple and a priesthood inhabited by the Holy Spirit, or presence of God (see 1 Corinthians 6:19; Ephesians 2:19-22; and 1 Pet 2:9).
- 2. Worship Is Spiritual Even though worship does involve rituals, our worship, from a New Testament perspective, is essentially spiritual (see 1 Peter 2:5; Romans 12:2). It was an internal attitude rather than a practice of external rituals. This understanding is also found in Isaiah 1:11-20 and Psalm 51:15-17.
- 3. However Worship Did Include Specific Practices Some of the rituals in the New Testament include baptism (Matthew 28:19); communion (1 Corinthians 11:23-34); laying on of hands (Acts 6:6; Acts 8:17; 13:1-3); foot washing (John 13:5-17); lifting up hands in prayer and worship (Luke 24:50; 1 Timothy 2:8; see Psalm 134:1-2 and Ps 143:6); the reading of Scriptures (1 Timothy 4:13); and contributions for ministry to those in need (1 Corinthians 16:2). Because we are not given explicit instruction on how to practice these rituals, many variations of their practices emerged in the early churches. Of course, the early Church patterned much of its worship service after that of the Jewish synagogue service. Worship services at first were on the Sabbath (Saturday), but by the middle of the first century, many Christians were gathering regularly on the first day of the week (see 1 Corinthians 16:2; Acts 20:7; Revelation 1:10) out of respect for the time of Christ's resurrection. At first, however, followers of Jesus in Jerusalem gathered daily in the Temple for prayers (Acts 3:46).
- 4. Worship Was Filled With Charismatic Praise The offering of enthusiastic praise and prayer under the influence of the Holy Spirit was characteristic of the early Church's worship. This was demonstrated through speech (1 Corinthians 14:19) and tongues, or ecstatic speech (1 Corinthians 14:2, 6 ff.). Each person was given a manifestation of the Spirit for the common good (1 Corinthians 12:7) and to build up the body of Christ (Ephesians 4:11-15).
- 5. Worship Was Didactic The early Christians were a teaching community giving instruction in their time of worship (see 1 Corinthians 12:8; 14:26; Ephesians 4:11; 1 Tim 3:2; 4:13; 5:17).
- 6. Worship Was Eucharistic The early Christians were a community that was conscious of the need to give thanks to God (Ephesians 5:19-20; Col 3:17).
- 7. Worship Involved Koinonia The Greek word, koinonia, means "sharing" or "participation" and is seen as the kind of giving in the fellowship that builds up the family of Christ (Acts 2:42-47). This is the focus of 1 Corinthians 12:1-7—each person was expected to come and share in the event of worship rather than simply listen to one person.
- 8. Worship Was Corporate There was also a corporateness in worship in every sense (1 Corinthians 12:12-26). The church was consciously a body or a fellowship of persons who saw themselves as inextricably bound together as brothers and sisters in Christ.
- 9. Worship Included Music The early Christians lifted their voices in praise to God. The New Testament frequently mentions the corporate singing which took place in their midst and also indicates some of their hymns and spiritual songs (e.g., Philippians 2:6-11; Ephesians 5:19-20; Rev 4:8-11; 5:9-13).
- 10. Worship Included Singing and Songwriting There are a number of hymns or spiritual songs in the New Testament literature. Among many others, here are examples of Christian spiritual songs: Ephesians 5:14 (three lines, first two rhyme in Greek, and the last is a promise), 1 Timothy 3:16, Philippians 2:6-11, Colossians 1:15-20, Hebrews 1:3. There are also the Nativity hymns in Luke: the Magnificat (1:46-55), the Benedictus (1:68-79), and Nunc Dimittis (2:29-32). Besides these, there are a number of well-known Christian hymns that date from roughly the early second century AD currently known as the Odes of Solomon, a collection of some 42 spiritual songs. One can see in all of these songs both praise and testimony to the greatness of God's activity in His son in Jesus the Christ.

All of the above hymns relate to the person and work of Jesus the Christ. They sometimes mention His pre-existence, or how He became a man and accomplished redemption (salvation) for the world through His suffering and death. The dominant motif in most New Testament hymns is that Christ is victorious over all of our enemies and is rightly worshiped as the image of God Who is over all.

The Good News The above examples show us how the early Church lived out its life in worship of God. Worship, of course, was not a simple act done occasionally, but rather a way of life that involved one's complete dedication to honor Christ and give our complete lives to serve Him. Worship cannot be reduced to a few songs, a Scripture reading, a sermon, and a closing prayer. It is a whole life of submission to the call of God that comes to us in the proclamation of good news. Christian worship is good-news oriented, even when reflective music is sung. We serve a God who does not abandon His children when this world's challenges are overwhelming, but comes to us in all circumstances of life.

One Benefit of The City: Ministry Gets Moving.

Mobilize is not a bad word, but it is kind of mechanical. We are really talking about movement. Armies and machines mobilize, but God moves. And God moves us. There's something powerful here. So, what does mobilization and movement with FBCFM look like, and what role does The City play in it?

It looks like people connecting with each other in meaningful ways. It looks like people having opportunities to interact despite the fact that everyday life is demanding. It looks like people praying for each other and sharing what they have to meet each other's needs. It looks like a bunch of people living together in such a way that they all move in the same direction, loving each other, serving each other, encouraging each other and inviting others to join them as they follow Jesus together.

The thing is, The City doesn't make any of this happen. Only God can do that. But The City creates a space where these things can happen more naturally in the context we're all living in. The City helps our church gather up the disconnected pieces of modern life and knit them together into one complete whole. When that happens, everyone in our church starts to belong, to give and receive, to move together in one direction and it's powerful.*
