

Follow Jesus

TODAY'S READING: Hebrews 13

The final chapter of Hebrews is a reminder to keep following Jesus. Continue loving each other as family. Do not neglect hospitality. Remember those in prison. Honor the marriage commitment. And hold money loosely. Do all this because Jesus said that "I will never leave you or abandon you." The author was reminding them to cling to Jesus in all they did.

Treating everyone we meet as brothers and sisters is important because the way we treat people is what builds our reputation. In John 13:35, Jesus says, "everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you love one another." How we welcome and love all those around us, even strangers, is the clearest picture of Jesus' grace and love given to us.

When we treat everyone we meet—our neighbors, the cashier at the store, the person who cuts us off in traffic—with the same love Jesus shows us, we exude a spirit of hospitality and grace that is open to relationships with others. Through those moments of grace and relationship, we are able to point others to Jesus and show the radical life change Jesus offers.

Remember what Jesus has done for you, so you may extend that truth and grace to others.

PRAYER: Lord Jesus, help my life point others to You. Let my relationship with You permeate everything I do.
