

Paul's Example

TODAY'S READING: Acts 28

Acts 28:31 is an incredible epitaph to Paul's life and ministry: "Paul proclaimed the kingdom of God and taught about the Lord Jesus Christ -- with all boldness and without hindrance." Paul faithfully did what God called him to do. He faced difficult and challenging times in his life, but he never gave up and never let his circumstances deter him from serving Jesus. God accomplished His purpose in Paul's life as Paul said "yes" to God time and time again.

Will you surrender to God's purpose for your life even before you know what He will ask of you? Make this commitment to the Lord: "God, whenever you say 'move,' I will move. Wherever you say 'go,' I will go. Whatever you say 'do,' I will do."

The story of God changing the world through the church does not stop in Acts 28. God's work continues today through passionate people who surrender everything and say with confidence, "Here I am. Send me!"

PRAYER: Lord, I am available. Help me hear You when You say "GO" and act on it.
