

The Lord Will Fulfill His Purpose

By Taylor Braswell on May 21, 2024

TODAY'S READING: Psalm 138

I want us to focus today on Psalm 138:6-8. How awesome is it that the Creator of the universe pays attention to us and shows us favor (verse 6)? The King of kings and Lord of lords was born in a lowly manger and became sin, although He knew no sin. The King of glory, who deserves all our praise and adoration, came to serve sinful humanity. Do not ignore the last part of verse 6, Church! The Lord stays away from proud people. The prideful person sees no need for a savior.

David knows that in every situation, he can trust God (verse 7). Like David, we sometimes find ourselves “in the midst of trouble.” When trouble comes, it can be easy to lose sight of how God protects and sustains us. Even in situations we deem “bad,” God is showing us grace and mercy. God keeps his children and has ultimately delivered us from sin and death by giving us eternal life! I pray that, like David, we can say, “The Lord will fulfill his purpose for me” in every situation! Because God loves us, we can be confident that everything we go through is part of God’s sovereign plan for our lives. In what God ordains and what He allows, He is receiving glory and conforming us into the image of Christ (Romans 8:29).

PRAYER: Father, thank You for sustaining me this day. You are worthy of my praise and affections. Help me kill pride in my life and use me to fulfill Your sovereign plans.

TOMORROW'S READING: Psalm 139
