

Deception

By Todd Hershberger on May 30, 2024

TODAY'S READING: Genesis 27

Life can take us down some difficult roads. Rebekah makes decisions in this passage that begin a series of decisions that lead her down a deceitful path. Many times in life we allow our feelings to dictate the decisions we make, and that can often lead to trouble. The same Rebekah we read about in Genesis 24, whose heart was willing and ready to do what God had for her, is now full of deceit. Many times in life, one small decision leads to another small decision that ultimately leads us to a place we did not intend to go.

Ravi Zacharias said, "Sin will take you further than you want to go, keep you longer than you want to stay, and cost you more than you want to pay." Rebekah decides to be deceitful, which then causes more deceit and ultimately leads to her family being in disarray. What a great reminder to be honest in everything and allow the Lord to work through our situations. Many of us have dealt with difficult family situations. Doing the right thing is often the hard thing, but so worth it.

PRAYER: Father, help me to be honest in the hard decisions. Help me to realize that small lies lead to bigger lies and bigger problems. Give me the strength and wisdom to be honest in my actions. Forgive me for being deceitful in the past and help me to be honest moving forward.

TOMORROW'S READING: Judges 4
