FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
FORT MILL

From Pastor Jeff

As we enter into the Follow Me focus, September 13-October 18 I want to connect the challenges from this study to the language we have been using around here for several years. We talk at FBC about 5 Personal Practices involved in following Jesus. These practices are easy to remember with the acrostic, G.R.A.C.E.

The 5 Personal Practices are:

Grow through personal spiritual growth habits

Right place of service

Attend weekly worship

Connect to a healthy small group

Engage in the Great Commission

To make these practices practical and applicable, the following questions may help us as we seek to build these practices into our lives out of the Follow Me focus.

How will I Grow Through Personal Spiritual Growth Habits?

- How am I going to fill my mind with God's truth?
- How am I going to pray?
- How am I going to fast?
- How am I going to give of my resources for kingdom causes?

How will I find my Right Place of Service?

- How am I currently serving?
- How will I go about finding my right place of service?
- Who does God want to touch through my life and ministry?

How will I prioritize Weekly Worship?

- How will I worship personally?
- How will I prepare to give myself more completely to God in the context of corporate worship?

How will I Connect with others in a healthy small group?

- Who am I connected to right now?
- What is my next step to get connected?
- Does God want me to be a leader of a small group?

How will I Engage in the Great Commission?

- Who am I praying for that doesn't know Christ?
- Who does Christ want me to share the gospel with?
- How will I share Christ with those around me?
- How will I impact the nations? Praying? Giving? Going?
- Who will I pour my life into that will be able to pour their lives into the lives of others?

Let me encourage you to prioritize this study and this focus as a way to catalyze great growth in your personal walk with the Lord and your impact upon the world!

FOLLOW ME

A CALL TO DIE. A CALL TO LIVE.

To live as disciples we need an authentic encounter with the person of Jesus Christ, who He is, what that means and to count the cost of truly following Him. Look afresh at the invitation Jesus offers and discover the joy and purpose that comes from abandoning your life to His. The sermon series begins Sunday, September 13.

Music ~ Celebrators ~ Media

“Sing joyfully to the LORD, you righteous; it is fitting for the upright to praise him. Praise the LORD with the harp; make music to him on the ten-stringed lyre. Sing to him a new song; play skillfully, and shout for joy.” Psalm 33:1-3

Music News

The role of music in the church is much the same as it was when King David organized a choir of singers thousands of years ago - to glorify God and assist the congregation in worshipping Him. Please check out the ministry opportunities listed below.

- * The Worship Choir sings most Sundays at the 8:15 worship service throughout the year and is a major part of Easter and Christmas worship celebrations. We have singers of all ages-youth through senior adults. Rehearsals are 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday nights.
- * Seasonal Singers sing at special presentations with the Worship Choir such as Easter and Christmas. Rehearsals are 8:15-9:00 p.m. on Wednesday nights. Seasonal singers who want to participate in the Christmas musical should plan to attend the fall choir retreat.
(If childcare is needed for worship choir practice, whether choir member or seasonal singer, you must let Diane Dulin know by 10:00 a.m. on Monday, via email at ddulin@fbcfm.com for the current week.)
- * The Handbell Choir meets on Wednesday evenings from 5:15-6:15 p.m. in the old choir room. We will resume on September 2. You must be able to read music to participate in this group. The handbell choir performs at some of the 8:15 worship services, the Candlelight service and various community venues.
- * The Celebrator Choir meets on Mondays from 10:30-11:30 a.m. September through early May. This group enjoys singing at various community venues and also sings on Sunday mornings a few times a year. This group is comprised mostly of adults who have retired and enjoy singing.
- * Fall Choir Retreat: September 18—6:00 p.m. for meal and 7:00-9:00 p.m. for rehearsal.
September 19—9:00-12:00 p.m. for rehearsal.

At this retreat we will learn 75% of the songs for the Christmas Musical. Choir members and seasonal singers should plan to attend this retreat. New members, youth-adult, are welcome. Childcare is available, 5th grade & under, upon request by contacting Diane Dulin at the church office. Deadline to register for childcare for the retreat is Friday, September 11, at noon.

CONDITIONAL WORSHIP

Gary Durbin

www.worshipleader.com

"I just can't worship with that kind of music."

Have you ever said something like this? I'm pretty sure I've said this before. I've definitely thought it at times.

I was at a traditional church several years ago when God opened my eyes to this. I was sitting there during the music and thinking about how I would do the song differently. Then God basically slapped me in the face. I felt Him say to me, "Gary, worship me. If you can't worship me with this kind of music, then your idea of worship is shallow." I walked away from that a changed person and a changed worship leader. Over the years, I have seen and heard testimonies of people who have worshipped and connected with God for the first time, even though they didn't prefer the music style that I was bringing. That is what it is all about. It's not about the methods or styles in which we worship. It's about bringing worship that the Father is seeking, which is in Spirit and in truth. (John 4:23)

That being said, I'm concerned that there is a danger we need to watch out for in our churches. The danger is CONDITIONAL WORSHIP. It's when God's people convince themselves of certain conditions that need to exist in order for corporate worship to happen. For some, it may call for a killer band and for others, it may call for a choir. For some, it may be lights and multimedia and for others, it may be stained glass and candles. These things are not bad ideas at all. When used properly, there are so many things that can enhance the experience and touch the senses, but we need BALANCE. We need to learn to worship God no matter what the circumstances. Paul said in Colossians 2:16 – "So don't put up with anyone pressuring you in details of diet, worship services, or holy days. All those things are mere shadows cast before what was to come; the substance is Christ." (The Message)

What is the substance of your worship? If it's not Christ alone, then you are probably suffering from CONDITIONAL WORSHIP.

Here are a few signs you can watch out for:

1. INCONSISTENCY – Is your worship experience inconsistent? If it is, you need to realize that it's not the church's fault. It's not the worship leader's fault. It's not the pastor's fault. The issue is found when you look in the mirror. If Christ is the substance of our worship, then we will experience consistency in corporate worship. Hebrews 13:8 says, "Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and forever." When Christ becomes the substance of our worship more and more, we will experience more and more consistency in heart-tugging, life-changing corporate worship.
2. BOREDOM – Jesus is not boring. Following Jesus with surrender is a true adventure. When Christ is not the substance of our worship, then we require lesser things to keep our attention in corporate worship. We require certain styles, certain songs and certain sermons. Eventually we tire of those things like a spoiled kid tires of unwrapped Christmas presents after a week of playing with them. If you are bored in corporate worship, maybe your attention is being kept by lesser things. When you fix your eyes on Jesus (Hebrews 12:1-3), you will never lose sight of true, exciting worship, no matter what the conditions.
3. HESITATION – Hesitation in corporate worship manifests itself in our inspection of everything, before we surrender everything. It's when we look at who is on the stage or what is on the agenda, as we assess whether or not the order of worship will satisfy our wants and needs. Surrender and obedience are at the heart of worship. Delayed obedience is disobedience. When we delay or hesitate to bring an offering of praise to God, we're not trusting that Christ is truly all we need. In Matthew 4, when Jesus called the disciples to follow Him, it says that they "immediately" left all they had and followed Him. May we not hesitate. May we follow and worship with trust and surrender.

Conditional worship is a sign that we have grown stale in our relationship with God or maybe we just have not grown at all. It reveals a heart that is not completely His.

When we completely, unconditionally surrender our heart to God, our worship will be complete.

God's love for us is unconditional. May our worship for Him have less and less conditions.

He loved us so much that He sent His only son to die for our sins. Christ is the only way to the Father (John 14:6). Christ is the substance of true worship and the only condition in worship we will ever need.

created for connection

Here are some easy ways to connect in ministry and community:

Life Groups are relational environments of 8-12 people who meet on a regular basis with the purpose of growing closer together and growing closer to God. Our goal is that each person in the group takes one step closer to becoming like Christ as a result of interacting with God's Word and each other. Community is a vital part of life. God designed us this way. You don't want to miss out on this life changing opportunity! If you are interested in joining a Life Group, you can sign up in the Worship Center lobby or online at www.fbcfm.com.

It is the goal of our Host Team to provide a 5-star experience to every guest, regular attendee and member by creating a warm and welcome atmosphere through a simple and smooth process. We do everything from shaking hands to straightening up bathrooms. We want everyone who attends FBCFM on a Sunday morning to know that we are glad they are here and we prepared for their visit. We want to free them up to connect with God and others.

---

We have experienced record numbers of First Time Guests the last few years at FBCFM. It is so vital that we help all of them connect to our church family. If we don't help our unconnected attendees bridge the gap from guest to connected attendee, they might never experience all that God is doing here at FBCFM. Our Link Team is designed to be a personal connection to help guests get plugged in to the life of FBCFM. The Link Team helps them discover not just the programs of FBCFM, but the people of our church family. If this kind of thing gets you excited, please shoot me an email or indicate the Link Team as an area of service on your Connect Card.
