

True Praise

By Shannon Ford on December 13, 2022

READING: Matthew 15

God delights in our praise of His name, His character and all He does for us. Praise is simply telling God you love Him. Every new day should begin and end with praise for our Lord and Savior, not because we “have to” but because we “get to.” Matthew 15:8-9 warns of the person who offers empty, meaningless praise.

Here Jesus quotes Isaiah 29:13, which was clearly addressed to the religious leaders. Jesus was saying that His generation was doing the same thing as Isaiah’s generation. In both Isaiah and Matthew, the people spoken to are Jews from Jerusalem who had a religion based on external religious traditions. They said all the right things, giving the impression they were spiritual; but their hearts were not obedient at all. They had a religious form, but not the obedience and trust that goes with it.

In 1 Samuel 16:7 God says, “... the Lord does not look at the things that man looks at. Man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks at the heart.” God is not pleased by words alone. He cannot be tricked by a smooth tongue and flattering speech. God sees straight to the heart of who we are. He desires praise from our lips that is rooted in truth. He is pleased by the praise of those who earnestly seek Him. Do you praise God each day? Or are you guilty of offering lip service to the only One worthy of all your praise?

PRAYER: God, thank You for the gift of praise. I desire to worship You in both word and deed. Please forgive me for the times I offer lip service instead of worship from a fully surrendered heart. In Jesus’ name, Amen.

TOMORROW'S READING: Matthew 16

Copyright © 2022 First Baptist Church, Fort Mill, SC, All rights reserved.

Visit our website

First Baptist Church | (803)547-2051 | 121 Monroe White St., Fort Mill, SC 29715 | fbcfm.com

First Baptist Church Fort Mill | 121 Monroe White St., Fort Mill, SC 29715

Unsubscribe {recipient's email}

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by fbcfortmill@comporium.net powered by

Try email marketing for free today!