CANADA

Most of Canada could be described as either post-Christian or secular, but the good news is that the number of evangelicals across the country is growing. Still there is much work to do. Much has changed in recent years, but the opportunity for the gospel to be shared in new and creative ways is tremendous. Pray the Holy Spirit would prepare and equip workers who are being sent out across Canada so they can present the gospel of Christ in a way that pierces the hearts of all Canadians.
