"Indianapolis is a wide-open mission field. Pray that God would send church planters who are supported by partner churches to plant in this metropolitan area of over 2 million people. Pray that God would strengthen the current church plants at work in our city and enable existing churches to establish church planting residencies and leadership pipelines leading toward increased Great Commission fruitfulness in the days ahead." ~Brian White, Indianapolis Send City Missionary

When I stepped on this platform last night—I'd never been on this platform before—I didn't get down and examine it to see if it would hold me up. I accepted by faith that the carpenters that built it, built it to hold a man. And by faith you receive Christ in the same way. You totally commit yourself. You say, "Lord, I'm not trusting anything else to save my soul except Jesus."
