

Ezekiel 20

Please read Ezekiel 20:33-49

1. In God's anger and not willing to be inquired of by these rebellious elders, how does God change course in His message to them?
2. After declaring that He will be their king, what does He declare He will do?
3. What does God mean when He says that He will bring them into the wilderness?
4. What does God mean when He says that He will judge them face to face?
5. What is the example that He draws upon to make them understand?
6. What is passing under the rod mean?
7. What bond is God going to restore them under?
8. What is God going to do to the rebellious and sinfully inclined?
9. What is God saying when He tells them to go and serve their idols?
10. What will they do when they return?

11. What must the Israelites do before God accepts them back into the land?
12. Why is God doing this, is He being mean?
13. What does God direct Ezekiel to do next?
14. What is the significance of Teman and the forest of the Negev?
15. What does God want him to tell the elders?
16. What does God imply when He says from the South to the North?
17. How does Ezekiel respond to the Lord?
18. Why do the elders say that Ezekiel is speaking in parables?
19. How do people who don't know God respond to Scripture and the Gospel in many cases?