

Outline for Resurrection Sunday 04/05/2026

“When God Answered” (Psalm 22:21b – 31)

Psalm 22:1-21 was a lament for Good Friday.

Psalm 22:21b-31 is rejoicing for Easter!

1. David stated a fact (v.21b). “You answered me.”

- a. What did that mean for David?
- b. What did that mean for Jesus?
- c. What does that mean for us?

2. David expressed praise (v.22-26).

- a. “I will proclaim your name.”
- b. “I will praise you in the assembly.”
- c. “I will praise in the great assembly.”
- d. “I will fulfill my vows.”
- e. “I will eat and be satisfied.”
- f. “Those who seek the Lord will praise.”

3. David explained the result (v.27-31).

- a. The ends of the earth will turn to the Lord.
- b. The nations will bow down before you.
- c. All who prosper will eat and bow down.
- d. All who die will kneel before him.

Conclusion:

- What was the result of this prayer?
- The resurrection of Jesus.
- The praise and worship of the church.
- The Great Commission of the church.

Outline for Resurrection Sunday 04/05/2026

“When God Answered” (Psalm 22: 21b – 31)

Psalm 22:1-21 was a lament for Good Friday.

Psalm 22:21b-31 is rejoicing for Easter!

1. David stated a fact (v.21b). “You answered me.”

- a. What did that mean for David?
- b. What did that mean for Jesus?
- c. What does that mean for us?

2. David expressed praise (v.22-26).

- a. “I will proclaim your name.”
- b. “I will praise you in the assembly.”
- c. “I will praise in the great assembly.”
- d. “I will fulfill my vows.”
- e. “I will eat and be satisfied.”
- f. “Those who seek the Lord will praise.”

3. David explained the result (v.27-31).

- a. The ends of the earth will turn to the Lord.
- b. The nations will bow down before you.
- c. All who prosper will eat and bow down.
- d. All who die will kneel before him.

Conclusion:

- What was the result of this prayer?
- The resurrection of Jesus.
- The praise and worship of the church.
- The Great Commission of the church.