

Titus Ten – Chapter #4

Assignments

Greg Turcotte (24-May-2025)

*** Start the Recorder ***

Opening Prayer

Introduction: Good morning. Today, we'll be covering Chapter 4 of our study through the book, The Titus Ten: Foundations for Godly Manhood. The subject of the chapter is Assignments.

Group Discussion – Reflection Questions from the Last Session:

- Identify and summarize one of the four identities
  - Slave – exclusive ownership, complete submission, singular devotion, total dependance, and personal accountability (p. 61)
  - Son – adopted, loved, and pleased with (p. 64)
  - Friend – moving from a top down to a side-by-side relationship (p. 65)
  - Lover – deeper, passionate love relationship so that we can love others (p.68)
- How have you most often viewed God: Master, Father, Friend, or Lover?
- What view of God is the most difficult for you?

Summary of Chapter 4 - Assignments:

1. In the book of Proverbs, the sluggard is frequently featured, why not the workaholic? The workaholic is a sluggard at home Men gravitate to places that affirm.
2. What is your identity? Who you are in Christ?
3. What question does your assignment answer (p. 78)? "What has God called me to do?"
4. What happens if you confuse your assignment with your identity? Identity crisis when your assignment changes.
5. What are the four primary domains for assignments? Self, Church, Family, Work.
6. What technique is helpful to being faithful to your assignments? Seeing what is valuable in life and ruthlessly eliminating what does not matter.
7. When writing down your assignments, what are a few of the assignments you found surprising?
8. I noticed that Texas Aggie fan, political activist, and Wall Street Investor did not make my list.
9. Why is it difficult to give careful thought to the Christian life? Why is it important? We might potentially waste our lives.
10. How have you seen the priority of your assignments change?

Closing Challenge:

This chapter is about our Assignments as Christian men. As men of God, it challenges us to remember that with every assignment, God has given you a sword and a plow so that you can protect and nurture those placed under your care.

Questions or Comments?

* Please Queue the Video ***