Essential Beliefs

God

There is one true God (YHWH) who always was, who presently is, and who forever will be. He is knowable only because He has revealed Himself to mankind in a way that is comprehensible for our limited capacities.

Jesus Christ

Jesus Christ, the second person of the Trinity, is the eternal only begotten son of God. He is fully man and fully God.

Holy Spirit

The Holy Spirit, the third person of the Trinity, is co-equal with the Father and Son for all eternity. He is a helper, adviser, strengthener, encourager, ally, and advocate. He is a person, distinct from the Father and Son.

The Scriptures

The Scriptures (39 books of the Old Testament and 27 books of the New Testament) are the inspired Word of God. In their original form they are without error in all they proclaim.

Man

God made humans, both male and female, in His own image with the purpose of glorifying Himself through enjoyment and fellowship with man. Tempted by Satan, man rebelled against God and fell from his sinless state.

Salvation

Salvation is the free gift of God, by grace alone and through faith alone in the person of Jesus Christ and His work on behalf of mankind. Man's response to God is founded in the eternal working of the triune God who predestined, called, justified and glorified all believers.

Male and Female as Image Bearers and the Implications for Marriage

God creates each person as male or female, as two distinct, complementary genders who together reflect the image and nature of God (Genesis 1:26-27). These distinctions are divinely inspired and are essential to fully understanding the nature of God.

Church

The church is a single worshiping community comprised of all believers in Christ for all time. The church is not a religion, institution or building. Rather it is God's redeemed people whom He protects, guides, and nurtures. God created His church by calling sinful people into a relationship with Himself, and into unity with Christ and each other.
