

A CITY-WIDE PRAYING, FASTING, AND PREACHING MOVEMENT
CALLING THE CHURCH ACROSS HOUSTON TO WALK WITH JESUS

AWAKEN HOUSTON

LIGHT UP THE CITY

PRAYER GUIDE

A DIGITAL GUIDE: FEBRUARY 16 - APRIL 5

WELCOME TO AWAKEN HOUSTON

Thank you for participating in Awaken Houston 2026, a unified season of prayer during Lent, taking place from February 16 through April 5. This year marks our 10th year of Awaken Houston, and we remain convinced that gospel movements are born at the intersection of unified, urgent prayer and bold gospel proclamation.

We believe God is inviting His Church in Houston to step into this movement together—seeking Him, listening for His voice, and trusting Him to work in ways beyond what we could ask or imagine.

2026 THEME:

WALKING WITH JESUS — LIGHT UP THE CITY

This year's theme, Walking with Jesus: Light Up the City, calls us to a simple yet powerful posture. This season is not about doing something impressive for God, but about taking faithful steps with Him. As we learn to walk with Jesus—day by day, street by street—we believe He will transform us, renew His Church, and bring awakening to our city.

PRAYER WALKING:

SATURATING OUR CITY WITH PRAYER

A key expression of walking with Jesus this season is prayer walking. Prayer walking is intercessory prayer that happens while walking in or near a specific place—your neighborhood, school, workplace, or city streets. As you prayer walk, your focus shifts beyond personal concerns to the needs of others, allowing God to shape your heart for your community.

Prayer walking invites us to:

- See people and places through God's eyes
- Listen to the Holy Spirit as we observe our surroundings
- Actively seek the peace and well-being of our city

This year, we are setting a bold goal as the Church in Houston: to collectively prayer walk 100,000 miles, covering our neighborhoods and communities in prayer.

USING THIS PRAYER GUIDE

This prayer guide is designed to help you engage meaningfully during your prayer walks.

- The guide is organized into 7 weeks, each with a theme drawn from the W.A.L.K.I.N.G. acrostic
- Some churches may also align sermons with these weekly themes

Each daily prayer walk follows the W.A.L.K. acrostic:

W — Worship

Begin by reflecting on the Scripture passage for the day.

A — Ask

Pray through three prompts:

- Personal renewal
- Revival in the Church
- Awakening in our city

These prompts are designed to guide and expand your prayers.

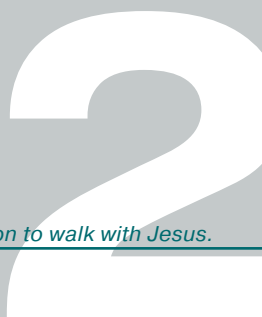

For additional unified prayers, see the Prayers for Greater Houston Appendix.

L — Look

Pray with your eyes open. Ask God to show you people, needs, or opportunities to engage. Refer to the How to Prayer Walk Appendix for ideas on interacting with others during your walk.

K — Keep Praying

Carry one prayer or burden from your walk into the rest of your day.

WALK WHERE HE WALKS

Jesus calls His first disciples to leave their nets and follow Him. (Matthew 4:18–22)

As Jesus strolls along the Sea of Galilee, He sees fishermen going about their daily work — ordinary people, busy with the familiar. His simple invitation, “Come, follow Me,” changes everything. To walk where Jesus walks means to leave behind comfort, control, and certainty to embrace a new calling. We begin our Lenten journey by stepping into obedience and discovering that true discipleship always starts with surrender.

AUTHENTIC RELATIONSHIP

Jesus shows that walking with Him is about relationship, not rules.
(Matthew 12:1–8)

When the Pharisees challenge Jesus over Sabbath traditions, He responds with grace and truth: “I desire mercy, not sacrifice.” Walking with Jesus is not about rigid religion, but real relationship. He calls us to move from ritual to relationship — from legalism to love — learning that His presence offers rest for the soul and freedom from performance-driven faith.

WEEK 3: MARCH 2–8

LAUNCH OUT BY FAITH

Peter steps out of the boat and walks on the water toward Jesus.
(Matthew 14:22–33)

In the darkness of the storm, Jesus appears, walking on the waves. Peter's decision to step out of the boat is a moment of breathtaking courage and trust. Faith means moving toward Jesus even when fear and uncertainty swirl around us. This week, we learn that walking with Jesus often means leaving the safety of what we know to experience His power in what we cannot control.

KINGDOM FIRST

Following Jesus requires total devotion and no turning back. (Luke 9:57–62)

Three people approach Jesus, each eager yet hesitant to follow. Jesus' replies cut to the heart: discipleship is not part-time or convenient. To walk with Him means prioritizing His kingdom above all else, setting aside excuses, distractions, and divided loyalties. The road of discipleship may be costly, but it leads to lasting joy and eternal reward.

INVERTING AUTHORITY

True greatness comes through humility and service. (Mark 10:32–45)

As the disciples dream of glory, Jesus redefines leadership: “Whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant.” He turns worldly ambition upside down, teaching that power is found in serving, not ruling. To walk with Jesus is to follow the One who kneels to wash feet and lays down His life for others. In a world obsessed with status, we are invited to embody a kingdom of humility, grace, and sacrificial love.

NO HOLDING BACK

We join the triumphal celebration, refusing to let the rocks cry out in our place. (Luke 19:28–40)

As Jesus rides into Jerusalem, the people shout “Hosanna!” and lay down their cloaks before Him. Yet their praise will soon give way to silence. This week calls us to worship boldly — with full hearts and open hands — even when following Jesus leads us into difficult places. Walking with Him means holding nothing back, declaring with conviction and joy that He alone is worthy.
