RUTH ACT III: MUNDANE MEDIATORS OF GOD'S GRACE

RUTH 3

Where to look for God when God feels “muted”

1. When God feels muted, remember that God did not just start creation and then occasionally _____ with miracles. He is _____ .
2. When God feels muted, look for the activity of redemption through _____ of his grace.

Context Question: What was a “guardian-redeemer?”

God's extraordinary story is most often mediated through ordinary _____ .

Discussion Questions

3. When in your own life has God felt “muted,” and looking back, where do you now see His quiet work through ordinary circumstances or people?
4. How might your own ordinary faithfulness today—in work, relationships, parenting, service—be part of God's larger redemptive story, even if you never see the outcome in your lifetime?
5. If this season of your life feels like a “filler episode,” what character traits might God be forming in you right now that could prepare you for a future work of redemption or service?
