Annual Celebration

Our Annual Celebration will take place on Sunday, May 18. The business meeting portion will occur at the end of the service. During the celebration we will vote on our 2025-2026 budget, new members, and committee/council nominees. Annual reports are available at the welcome desk and on our website.

The following candidates have been nominated for 2-year terms starting June 1, 2025:

- Outreach Chair - Kim Sorensen
- Property Chair - Ted Koch
- Property Vice-Chair - Jeremy Kobielush

Created to Create

Spring into the fun of Veggie Printmaking! This Tuesday, May 13 at 6:00 p.m. we will be using vegetables in a form of relief printing. You're welcome to bring any kind of veggies (or fruit) you may have at home. We'll be providing them as well. Hope to see you!

Grad Night

Join us here at First Free as we honor our graduating high school seniors Wednesday, May 21 at 6:30 p.m. We will have a service where we encourage, celebrate, and pray for our seniors; then enjoy some time of fellowship downstairs. Cards are welcome!

Missionary Speakers

On Sunday, May 25, after the service, grab a donut and coffee and head to room 103 to listen to David and Jul Stone talk about their decades of mission work and their passion to help equip the new generation of missionaries with cross-cultural tools to reach the remaining Muslim, Hindu, and Buddhist unreached people groups.

Sermon Notes

Pastor Jay Pound • May 11, 2025

HIS APPRENTICES VARIOUS SCRIPTURES

We are all _____ to someone or something (Joshua 24:2).

Jesus invites us to be apprentices in his _____ (Matthew 5-6).

- Jesus' _____ + Jesus' _____ = Jesus life (Eugene Peterson).

Practices are _____, things we do that are designed to change _____ . (Mark 1:35).

Discussion Questions:

1. How would you describe the way of life that our culture produces? Who do we become if we just go with the flow?
2. What are some areas of life where you find it especially challenging to live in the way Jesus calls us to live?
3. What is one area where you wish that you were more like Jesus? Can you think of a practice that can help change you in that direction?
