LIVING GENEROUSLY

MATTHEW 6:19-34

Our society's relationship to wealth and money is characterized by _____ :

- We stress and worry that there will not be _____ .
- We become _____ by the desire to accumulate wealth and possessions.
- We become selfish with what we have, and _____ of those with more.
- Our unprecedented level of prosperity has done _____ to solve any of this (v. 19).

Jesus' life-giving alternative: a radical _____ in God that produces _____ in us (vv. 28-34).

- Generosity points to God's _____ and _____ as the only cure for worry (vv. 19-21, 25-34).
- Generosity _____ us from slavery to wealth and possessions (vv. 31-33).

Application: In a world consumed by worry and envy, living generously puts the goodness of God _____ .
