

Hi family,

Thank you for continuing to pray for us and our ministry here in Taiwan.

- Last week our local team hosted a retreat for women in ministry in our partnering Baptist churches. It was a great time of getting to go deeper with these ladies and hear from them on their values and needs that we may better partner with them. Coming out of that meeting, this week I will be meeting with two of these women to talk through their ministries and ways our local team can come alongside them to encourage and equip them. Please pray for supernatural language ability as spiritual language is more difficult for me still, and pray for creative ideas of how to partner together.
- Last week I joined in a birthday celebration for my local friend, S. During that I continued to share different parts of my life and beliefs with her. Then, the following day, I lead the mom's library time in singing some songs about how Jesus helps us to overcome our struggles and fears. Later that day, S wrote to ask me if I could teach her more of those "poetries" so she could also enjoy Jesus more. I am so thankful for how the Lord is at work in her heart. Please join me in praying that the Lord will bring her to truly knowing Him.
- This week is parent-teacher conferences, Elijah's first basketball game, Evy's spring concert, and a bike trip at the kids' school. Please pray that the Lord will continue to give me strength, energy, and multiplied time to be present with them in each of these activities and that I would continue to shepherd their hearts well to Jesus.

Thank you for how you love and support us and are such a source of encouragement to me!
