"Remembering and Giving Thanks"

As you receive this we walk together into the holiest time of the year remembering the most essential week that has or ever will happen in human history. Before we go any further, take a couple minutes to stop and consider this, right now, just stop. Think about Thursday night, when Jesus washed our feet. Think about what happened the next day on Friday on a hill outside of Jerusalem. Think about the long hours until Sunday. And then think about Sunday! Think about what it all means; right now, stop and think about it.

Now, having done this, keep doing it all month, all lifelong. Because as we stop every day to remember what this holy week is about we find the meaning of life. When we stop and give thanks that the creator of all things would come to find us and define our need and then meet it with the gift of his love poured out through the life of his own Son, all the trivia and all the chaos and all that stresses and makes us anxious are swallowed up. What is more essential than this?

And yet we don't let this happen. We get caught up in "this and that". And until something really stops us in our tracks we think we are OK. But OK isn't enough. We need more. God knows this. And so he comes to us as Emmanuel – God with us, and invites us to remember and give thanks that HIS LOVE is the something more that saves us from OK or less. This is the wonder of God's love in Jesus Christ.

But we live in a world that doesn't know about this because it has been led to seek less. We are invited to invite them to the ONE THING that makes ALL THINGS NEW; a living personal relationship with the God of the universe who has come looking for us all and gave his life for us in Jesus Christ to defeat our great enemy and fear, death itself.

I hope you will let this week, this month, this year be a time of remembering this. And then invite someone who has forgotten or never known to come experience this gift of all gifts. Because as we do this we remember and give thanks for the only life that matters; the life we could not find or make, but that God came and gave for free. There are so many ways to include people in this journey. Take a look throughout this Trumpet and you'll see. Remember and give thanks.

I thank God for the many ways you all reminded me of this during my recent illness. THANK YOU for the way you embodied the message of Jesus Christ by holding together and showing the world the strength of what it means to be one IN HIM.

Remembering and giving thanks with you in Christ,

Bruce

DISCIPLE-MAKING: YOU CAN TELL A TREE BY ITS FRUIT

In the third chapter of Matthew's gospel, John the Baptist sees some Pharisees coming to be baptized and challenges them to "bear fruits worthy of repentance." He gives them this grave warning: "Even now the ax is lying at the root of the trees; every tree therefore that does not bear good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire." Jesus echoes this idea in John 15: "I am the true vine, and my Father is the vinegrower. He removes every branch in me that bears no fruit. Every branch that bears fruit he prunes to make it bear more fruit." Of course, we bear fruit as disciples only as a result of the free gift of grace. However, the challenge still stands: we are called to be disciples who bear fruit.

What kinds of "fruit" can we expect to produce when we abide in Jesus? Theologian Alan Hirsch makes a great observation in The Forgotten Ways that we must be disciples who make disciples or else all our efforts are in vain:

C. S. Lewis rightly understood that the purpose of the church was to draw people to Christ and make them like Christ. He said that the church exists for no other purpose. "If the Church is not doing this, then all the cathedrals, clergy, mission, sermons, even the Bible, are a waste of time."

When dealing with discipleship, and the related capacity to generate authentic followers of Jesus, we are dealing with that single most crucial factor that will in the end determine the quality of the whole—if we fail at this point then we must fail at all the others. In fact if we fail here, it is unlikely that we will even get to doing any of the other elements of mDNA [Hirsch's term for our inherited calling to mission] in any significant and lasting way.

But even more significant, this is the very task into which Jesus focused his efforts and invested most of his time and energy, namely in the selection and development of that motley band of followers on whose trembling shoulders he lays the entire redemptive movement that would emerge from his death and resurrection. The founding of the whole Christian movement, the most significant religious movement in history, one that has extended itself through the ages, and into the twenty-first century, was initiated through the simple acts of Jesus investing his life and embedding his teachings in his followers and developing them into authentic disciples.

If we want to take the Bible seriously, then we have to ask this question of ourselves: are we disciples who make disciples? Do we let our light shine before others, so that they may see our good works and give glory to our Father in heaven (Matthew 5:18)?

These are really tough questions. It's tempting to make excuses: how can we make people into disciples if they are too stubborn or distracted? Of course, only the Holy Spirit has the power to change hearts and imbue them with saving faith. But the challenge remains – "Go therefore and make disciples of all nations" (Matthew 28:19a). Somehow – when we abide in Jesus, the true vine, fruit happens.

Our strategy must be founded by Jesus, sustained by Jesus, and always pointing to the power of Jesus. Jesus shared life with people, so we must share life with people. Jesus served and loved people, so that's how we want to do it. Jesus gave up his life to save people, so each day we seek to give up our lives for the sake of others. When we trust Jesus at each step, we can also trust Jesus with the results. "So neither the one who plants nor the one who waters is anything, but only God who gives the growth" (1 Corinthians 3:7).

Here's my specific challenge for you: spend some time over coffee or a meal with another believer and ask each other about how God is calling you both to make disciples. Don't forget about grace. After all, bearing fruit is the result of God's redemptive power in our lives, not our way of earning his favor. If you try out this challenge, give me a call (775-400-0998) or send me an email (dan@fpccarsoncity.org) and tell me how it went. God has amazing things he wants to do through us!

NEW LIFE -

As I write this, I am marveling at the presence of new life. My daughter, Lauren and her husband Don have welcomed their second baby into the family. I had the privilege of serving them this last week in their household, as well as the joy of getting to know my newest grandson and reconnecting with my 3 1/2 year old grandson. As we move further into spring and celebrate the resurrection of our Lord, we see new life everywhere. Flowers blooming, trees leafing, babies (both animal, bird, and human) being born. We are reminded of the renewal of the earth and somehow, it renews our hope for the future. Jesus came to give us a more lasting version of the new life we see around us. He came to rescue us from ourselves and the fallenness of creation.

One such reminder of this, musically, is the gospel song, He Lives, written by Alfred H. Ackley (1887-1960). The writing of this song flowed directly out of an evangelistic meeting being conducted by Dr. Ackley, who had graduated from Westminster Theological Seminary and been ordained to the Presbyterian ministry. One day he had a young Jewish student who had been attending his meetings challenge him with this question: "Why should I worship a dead Jew?" Dr. Ackley's answer that "He lives! I tell you, He is not dead, but lives here and now!" and his subsequent assertions and sermon of the same title, helped win the young man to Christ. This in turn flowered into a song that came quickly to the evangelist. The words to the 2nd verse talk about the writer seeing Jesus's loving care all around him in the world. "I know that He is leading thru all the stormy blast, the day of His appearing will come at last." The last line of the hymn states: "You ask me how I know He lives, He lives within my heart!" Dr. Ackley is known to have penned over 1,000 gospel songs and hymns.

Another well-loved gospel song was written out of concern for the way the world was disintegrating. Gloria Gaither was expecting her third child in the late 1960's when so much unrest and difficulty was happening in our country. One evening, lamenting the illness of her husband Bill, and worrying about many attacks that had happened on their ministry as well as the upheaval in our country and the drug culture that was so prevalent, Gloria grew increasingly panicked that she was bringing another child into this world with so much going on. But God suddenly brought her peace and calm as she was assured that the future would be fine, left in His hands. The peace and calm she experienced could not be explained --truly of God, beyond the understanding of humans. She and Bill wrote the song, Because He Lives, one of the most beloved songs of all time. As the Gaithers wrote, they said that the Holy Spirit's presence was apparent. Gloria later remembered that "life was conquering death in the regularity of my day". Joy overcame her fear and took precedence over her troubling circumstance. Later, Gloria wrote a book called Fully Alive, in which she recalled a paving project in their office parking lot that became further confirmation that life conquers death. The project occurred in the fall. Very early the following spring her father-in-law came into their offices and beckoned them to come look at something. In the parking lot, which had so meticulously been prepared and paved over the previous fall, a shoot was rising through the asphalt. A bright green reminder that life wins! Gloria remembers that she and Bill "couldn't help thinking of the song we had just written after our own personal bout with darkness".

These two gospel hymns are reminders of God's new life for us. The Apostle Paul tells us in Romans 8 that, "22 We know that the whole creation has been groaning as in the pains of childbirth right up to the present time. 23 Not only so, but we ourselves, who have the firstfruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly as we wait eagerly for our adoption to sonship, the redemption of our bodies." That's why it's so important to tell of the Savior's resurrection. We can have His strength to overcome the things that make us fearful in life, because Jesus lives, every single day, in our hearts. And we can have full assurance we all, including both my grandsons, can face tomorrow!

Joyfully,
Karen

Maundy Thursday Service of Tenebrae and Potluck Soup Supper – April 2

We will begin the evening with a potluck soup supper at 6:00 p.m. Pastor Bruce will lead us in worship at 7:00 p.m. Please bring a pot of soup and/or bread to share between 5:30 and 6:00 p.m. Or just come be our guest!

Join us for an open invitation to the Lord's Supper followed by the Service of Tenebrae which marks Christ's time in the Garden of Gethsemane, where he prayed and prepared to go to the Cross. At the close of the service, the pastors gradually extinguish candles while reading passages from the Gospels, and the service ends in darkness and silence.

Good Friday – April 3

We will be showing two movies; Jesus of Nazareth at 4:30 p.m.—Great for families and The Passion of the Christ at 7:00 p.m. The Passion of the Christ is for adults.

Good Friday is a powerful part of Holy Week and Easter. How can we appreciate the significance of the empty tomb if we have not first witnessed our Lord on the cross, suffering in our place? "No one has greater love than this, to lay down one's life for one's friends." Moreover, Good Friday gives us an opportunity to experience a part of the gospel story in a new and different format. Please join us to watch the Easter story unfold this Good Friday.

Easter Sunday - April 5

Join us to celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus! Two services are offered. Our contemporary service begins at 9:00 a.m. and our traditional service at 10:45 a.m.

"Do not be afraid; I know that you are looking for Jesus who was crucified. He is not here; for he has been raised, as he said." - Matthew 28:5b-6
