Other News

- Pastor Mark Wagenaar has received a call from Burgessville HRC. Please remember him in prayer as he considers this call.
- FRC Women's Retreat: Please join us from November 14-16 as we study God's Word together under the theme, "Hopeful Living in an Anxious Age." Registration is now open, so you may visit www.ontariofrcwomensretreat.ca and click on the link to register. Please pray for guidance as the planning continues, a desire and ability for women to join, wisdom for Arlene Jonkman as she prepares for the sessions, and above all, that God may be glorified. If you have any questions, please contact us at ontariofrcwomensretreat@gmail.com.

God be merciful unto us, and bless us; and cause his face to shine upon us. Selah. That thy way may be known upon earth, thy saving health among all nations. Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. O let the nations be glad and sing for joy: for thou shalt judge the people righteously, and govern the nations upon earth. Selah. Let the people praise thee, O God; let all the people praise thee. Then shall the earth yield her increase; and God, even our own God, shall bless us. God shall bless us; and all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Psalm 67

Congregational Life

- Today, Rev. J.Th. Pronk will lead our morning worship service, and Dr. David Kranendonk will lead our evening worship service.
- Next week, Rev. B. Elshout will lead our morning worship service, and Dr. David Kranendonk will lead our evening worship service.
- Bulletin announcements should reach the secretary by noon on Wednesday this week. Thank you!
- From the Consistory: At our membership meeting this past week, the congregation voted to call Dr. Jason as a minister of the gospel and to serve as professor in Asia. Please continue to pray for him and his family, and for the work being done there.
- From the Family Camp Committee: We would like to remind you that overnight registration forms are due today, so if you plan to stay overnight, please return your form today! Day visitor forms are due by July 21. If you have any questions, please reach out to any of the family camp committee members.
- From the Deacons: Our Family Camp fund is low and in need of funds for this year's camp. In addition to the $7,000 currently in the fund, about $15,000 more is needed to cover the cost of camp for this year. Our next collection for family camp will be on July 28, and you may also give via Breeze at any time. We commend this to your prayerful support.
- All ladies are invited to a baby shower for Noah, son of Micah and Emily Kruithoff, on Tuesday, July 30 at 7 PM. If you would like to go in on a gift, please sign the card and place your money in the box on the table in the narthex by July 21. There is also a sign-up sheet on the table if you would like to bring food. If you have any questions, please contact Melanie VanderBoon or Brooke Roelofs.

Meditation

WALK BY FAITH, NOT BY SIGHT

*For we walk by faith, not by sight.
2 Corinthians 5:7*

This walk of faith takes in all the minute circumstances of every day's history; a walking every step by faith; a looking above trials, above necessities, above perplexities, above improbabilities and impossibilities, above all second causes; and, in the face of difficulties and discouragements, going forward, leaning upon God. If the Lord were to roll the Red Sea before us, and marshal the Egyptians behind us, and thus hem us in on every side, and yet should bid us advance, it would be the duty and privilege of faith instantly to obey, believing that, before our feet touched the water, God, in our extremity, would divide the sea and take us dry shod over it.

This is the only holy and happy life of a believer. If he for a moment leaves this path and attempts to walk by sight, difficulties will throng around him, troubles will multiply, the smallest trials will become heavy crosses, temptations to depart from the simple and upright walk will increase in number and power, the heart will sicken at disappointment, the Holy Spirit will be grieved, and God will be dishonored. Let this precious truth ever be before the mind, "We walk by faith, not by sight."

Octavius Winslow
