Welcome

We welcome you to our worship services today. May the Lord bless His Word to each one of us. If you have any prayer needs, or if you would like to know more about our church, the elders would be glad to speak with you.

By the word of the LORD were the heavens made; and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth. He gathereth the waters of the sea together as an heap: he layeth up the depth in storehouses. Let all the earth fear the LORD: let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him. For he spake, and it was done; he commanded, and it stood fast. The LORD bringeth the counsel of the heathen to nought: he maketh the devices of the people of none effect. The counsel of the LORD standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations. Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

Psalms 33:6-12

Meditation

THE LAST ENEMY

The raging heat at noon properly expresses the sharpest trial with the last enemy, when sin and Satan try their utmost efforts and set the king of terrors to attack and alarm the conscience. And they succeed with all natural men. To unpardoned sinners, how fearful is death. The approach of it is to them the beginning of endless sorrows. But our Lord's pastoral love has engaged to deliver the sheep of His pasture from the power and from the fear of death. And here His divine affection for them shines forth in a wonderful manner, which can no more be described, than it can be imitated: for if all the holy angels in heaven, and all the creatures in the universe were to lay down their lives to save one lost sheep, it would be in vain. The Lord Jesus alone was equal to this great work: for He was God and man united in one Christ, and therefore His death was of inestimable and infinite value. By it He made a full, perfect, and sufficient sacrifice, oblation, and satisfaction for sin. Paul tells the Corinthians, "I delivered unto you first of all that which I also received, how that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures." The scriptures of the Old Testament shewed in the sacrifices of the law, that He was to die and to shed His blood for sin. One prophet says that Christ should swallow up death in victory (Isaiah 25:8). And in another, Christ Himself says, "I will ransom them from the power of the grave, I will redeem from death: O death, I will be thy plagues, O grave, I will be thy destruction." (Hosea 13:14). And the New Testament shews how He fulfilled these scriptures; by the one sacrifice of Himself He abolished death, so that it has no longer any power over the children of God.
