Meditation

COME TO THE MERCY SEAT FOR PARDON

And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment: of sin, because they believe not on me.

John 16:8-9

You come, wholly as a sinner. Nothing can be more deeply solemnizing than this: to have such a burden to lay down there – to have nothing else than a burden of this kind – and to lay all this on the Lord Jesus Christ! How humbling, how fitted to lay the sinner in the dust, is the view this gives of his utter guilt and vileness! And yet, nothing is more inviting, for it is with sin he comes, and as a sinner, and the Lord Jesus meets the sin and the sinner. Is there then any room for delay? Any ground for excuse for hesitating to come at once?

Reader, have you ever laid to heart that this is the truth, as to the state in which a sinner comes to the mercy seat for pardon? Is it true that the greatness of your sins needs be no hinderance to your acceptance, if only you are now willing with all your heart to turn from sin to God? Yes, it is true. It was for sinners the mercy seat was made. It was for sinners the blood was shed.

‘This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.’ (Matthew 26:28). ‘They that be whole need not a physician, but they that are sick...I am not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.’ (Matthew 9:12-13)
