Welcome

We welcome you to our worship services today. May the Lord bless His Word to each one of us. If you have any prayer needs, or if you would like to know more about our church, the elders would be glad to speak with you.

They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of mine head: they that would destroy me, being mine enemies wrongfully, are mighty: then I restored that which I took not away.

Psalms 69:4

Congregational Life

- Today, Pastor Macleod will lead our worship services.
- Next week, Pastor Macleod will lead our worship services.
- The Sunday School & Catechism classes Psalter of the month for October is Psalter 84:1 & 2.
- Adult Sunday School: Dr. Michael Barrett has graciously agreed to lead our Adult Sunday School Class once a month. He hopes to begin this morning and will be doing a series of classes on Christ in the Old Testament. Apart from a few familiar stories and a few favorite Psalms, the Old Testament is a closed book for many Christians. Finding Christ in the pages of the Old Testament opens the ancient Scripture, all of which, according to Jesus, spoke of Him (Luke 24). In this class, we will learn where and how to find Christ in the ancient text. We strongly encourage all adults to attend these classes. Please join us in the sanctuary after our service this morning. May God bless this instruction to each of us.
- Young Adult Group: Corbin & Ellyne Prince will be hosting a young adult get-together at their home on Saturday, October 24 at 7 PM. Please let Corbin, Ellyne, or Alec know if you plan to come.
- From the Dorcas Guild: During the next few weeks, we will be doing our Operation Christmas Child shoe box project for Samaritan's Purse. The boxes are available in the narthex. Please return filled boxes to church by Sunday, November 15. Thank you!
- We welcome Ryan & Frances Kleinjan into full membership in our congregation. May the Lord bless them as they join our church family.

Meditation

THE SUFFERING ONE

Who his own self bare our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live unto righteousness: by whose stripes ye were healed.

1 Peter 2:24

Blessed announcement! Because it is forgiven and entirely blotted out, the sin is not the less hateful, nor hated. Oh no! Let the Lord touch your heart, Christian reader, with a sense of His pardoning love, with the assurance of His forgiveness, and you will go and hate, mortify, and forsake it more resolutely and effectually than ever. And must the Son of God become the Son of man, that they who are by nature the children of wrath might become the sons of God? Must God, the eternal god, the high and lofty One, stoop so low as to become the incarnate, and that for sinners – for me, a poor worthless sinner? To save me from eternal woe, must the Son of Man suffer, agonize, and die; die in my stead, die for my sins, die an accursed death? Ah! Lord, what must sin be, what must my sin be! How little have I thought of it, how little have I mourned for it, still less have I hated it as I ought to have hated it! Lord, how vile, how unutterably vile I am! Oh hated sin! Dost Thou forgive it, Father of my mercies? This only makes it more hateful still. Never, never can I forgive myself.
