Meditation

A COMPASSIONATE SAVIOR

Behold the wonderful love of God the Father, who was content to degrade and abase His dear Son in order to bring about the salvation of sinners. How astonishing it is that He should send His only begotten Son to assume our nature and bear that dreadful wrath and punishment that we deserved?

See here the wonderful love and astonishing condescendency of the Son, to be born of a woman, in order that He might die in the room of sinners. O how low did He stoop and humble Himself, in assuming human nature, with all its sinless infirmities, in being subject to His own law, exposed to all manner of injurious usage from wicked men to the temptations of Satan, and at last suffering a shameful and ignominious death! What great love to sinners, and what unparalleled condescension was here!

See here the cure of our being conceived in sin and brought forth in iniquity. Christ was born of a woman for us, and He was born without sin for us, that the holiness of His nature might be imputed to us as a part of that righteousness which constitutes the condition of our justification before God. In Him is a complete righteousness for our guilt, and a fountain for washing away our spiritual pollution.

Christ is sensibly touched with all the infirmities that attend our frail nature and has pity and compassion upon His people under all their pressures and burdens. Hence the apostle says, 'In all things it behoved him to be made like unto his brethren; that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest, in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people: for in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succour them that are tempted' Hebrews 2:17-18. How comfortable is it to believers to consider, that He who is their great High Priest in heaven, is clothed with their nature, to capacitate and qualify Him to have compassion on them in all their troubles and distresses.

Let this encourage sinners to come unto Him, that they may be united unto Him by faith, and so partake of the blessings of His purchase. Come and enter into a marriage-relation with Him. Sin shall not stop the match, if ye be willing. He that could sanctify the virgin's substance to make it a sinless piece of flesh can easily sanctify you. And He that united the human nature to His divine person can also unite you to Himself, so as ye shall never be separated from Him.
