

Masculine Creed

I am a man. Made by God. Made for God.
I am not my own.
I belong to God, body and soul.
and fear Him above all peoples.

I reflect my Father's goodness to my family and the world around me as a provider and a protector.
I take responsibility for my actions and watch over what God has given to me.

I give my life away
having a kingdom vision for the world, zeal for the house of the Lord and a godly ambition to advance the kingdom of God through my work.

I yield my life—
my heart's wanderings, my mind's imagination, my soul's longings, and my strength's abilities—
to faith in Jesus.

I surrender to a fraternity of Christian brothers who know me, fight for me, fight along side of me, and offer me faithful wounds that I would follow Jesus more deeply.

I am a man. Made by God. Made for God.
I will be watchful, stand firm,
act like a man, be strong,
and do everything in love.
