SUNDAY SCHOOL

Sunday school is an important time, dedicated to delving into the Word of God to find all the treasures God has for us there. Our Sunday school teachers systematically teach through the Scriptures each week, line upon line, precept upon precept. There is a Bible class for each age group, and a list of all classes and their locations can be found in the church vestibule.

SUNDAY MORNING & EVENING SERVICES

God has mandated the preaching of the gospel (Matthew 28:18-20; Mark 16:15; Luke 24:47; John 20:21). Because we believe that a service should be designated for this purpose, we usually set aside Sunday morning for this important ministry. The teaching ministry of the shepherd is equally important for the equipping of the saints for the work of the ministry. Establishing believers in sound doctrine is best achieved by an expository teaching ministry. Sunday evening is devoted to this purpose.

MIDWEEK SERVICE

The midweek service is always a refreshing time of Bible study and prayer. On Wednesday evenings at 7:00, line upon line our pastor teaches the truths found in God's Word. Please do not miss what the Lord has for you at this important weekly meeting of our church.

Songs

OF LOUDEST PRAISE

"Come before His presence with singing."

PSALM 100:2

Morning

He Has Come For Us	Screen
Hark! the Herald Angels Sing	277
What Child Is This?	281

Evening

Good Christian Men, Rejoice	273
It Came upon the Midnight Clear	251
Go, Tell It on the Mountain	258

We earnestly ask that every sincere worshiper will enter the auditorium in an attitude of reverence, silencing electronic devices, and as the prelude music begins, to prayerfully seek the Lord's face and blessing.

Please join in the congregational singing, carefully considering what is being taught in the song and, above all, being concerned to worship the Lord in spirit and in truth.

"Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord."

PSALM 150:6

Notable Quotes

The motto of theological liberalism, then and now, is "Christianity must adapt or die." –Burk Parsons

Worldliness is whatever makes sin look normal and righteousness look strange. –Kevin DeYoung

Since Satan cannot destroy the gospel, he has too often neutralized its usefulness by addition, subtraction, or substitution. –J. C. Ryle

Take heed that thy inside and outside be alike, and both conformable to the Word of His grace. –John Bunyan

The essence of sin is man substituting himself for God, and the essence of salvation is God substituting Himself for man.
–John Stott

The God who has been sufficient until now, should be trusted to the end. –C. H. Spurgeon

Jesus Christ demands more complete allegiance than any dictator who ever lived. The difference is, He has a right to it.
–Vance Havner

Intercession [is] the hardest work in the world, the giving of one's self to the needs of others in a way no one but God sees.
–Elisabeth Elliot

God hath ordained that we should be saved by grace, that He might have the praise and glory of our salvation. –John Bunyan

Jesus Christ is the sum and quintessence of the gospel, the wonder of angels, the joy and triumph of saints. –Thomas Watson

Words are cheap. It is by costly, self-denying Christian practice that we show the reality of our faith. –Jonathan Edwards

We may never be martyrs, but we can die to self, to sin, to the world, and to our plans and ambitions. –Vance Havner

Temptations and occasions put nothing into a man, but only draw out what was in him before. –John Owen

AUDITORIUM WINDOWS

After 73 years and some refurbishing along the way, the stained-glass windows in the auditorium are in dire need of complete restoration soon. The exterior shows much rot and decay, leaving the windows in a very fragile state. We have received several estimates, all of which are very costly. Please consider giving towards this much-needed project.

To date, we have approximately $60,000 of the $95,000 needed.
