

14A

Psalm 14

Within His Heart the Fool Spoke

Rise and pray, lest you enter into temptation.

— Luke 22:46

1. ¹ With - in his heart the fool spoke, And said, "There is no God!"
 2. ³ To - geth - er they're cor - rupt - ed; They all have turned a - side.
 3. ⁵ There they will be in ter - ror, For God is with the just.

De - struc - tive in their vile deeds, Not one of them does good.
 Not one for good has la - bored, Not e - ven one has tried.
⁶ Though you would shame the wretch - ed, The LORD re - mains his trust.

² The LORD looks down from heav - en Up - on the hu - man race:
⁴ Have all of them no knowl - edge Whose deeds are so ab - horred?
⁷ From Zi - on, send sal - va - tion, And help to Is - r'el bring!

Has an - y - one shown wis - dom, Does an - y seek God's face?
 Like bread they eat My peo - ple, And call not on the Lord.
 The LORD re - stores His cap - tives: Let Ja - cob— Is - r'el— sing!

Psalm taken from The Book of Psalms for Worship. c. 2010, Board of Education and Publication

Reformed Presbyterian Church of North America
7408 Penn Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania 15208
Used by permission

PASSION CHORALE 76 76 D

Hans Leo Hassler; 1564-1612; harm. J.S. Bach, 1685-1750