Christian Managers: Transformed Behavior
Eph 6:9

Transformed
behavior for
managers
(Eph 6:b-7)

Consider
yourself a slave who belongs to
Christ

A diagram consisting of a central text box and a crosshair. The text box is a light green rounded rectangle containing the text "Consider yourself a slave who belongs to Christ". The crosshair is formed by two white arrows: one pointing horizontally (left and right) and one pointing vertically (up and down), intersecting at the center of the text box.

Transformed
managers
(Eph 6:b-7)

Consider
yourself a
slave who
belongs to
Christ

God's will is to lead from
a total
commitment
in your inner
man

Transformed behavior for managers (Eph 6:b-7)

Consider
yourself a

Christ

God's will is
to lead from
a total
commitment
in your inner

Be faithful to your worker
and do good
to them

Transformed behavior for managers (Eph 6:b-7)

Consider
slave who
belongs to
Christ

God's will is
to lead from
a total
commitment
in your inner

Be faithful to
your worker
and do good
to them

Lead as one who has been put into service by Jesus

Adopt the same transformed behavior as required for workers

Stop threatening your workers

Threat: expresses the intention to hurt, destroy or punish someone to retaliate or to intimidate (Webster's New World Dictionary)

Christian Managers: Transformed Behavior

Adopt the same transformed behavior as required for workers

Stop threatening your workers

Be sobered knowing that your heavenly Master is impartial

Christian Managers: Transformed Behavior

A large, dark wooden king chess piece stands on a black and white checkered chessboard. The piece is the central focus, with its crown-like top and tiered body. The background is a blurred chessboard with other pieces visible in the distance.

A master's Master (Eph 6:9)

If the master of a slave has a Master himself, then that master is also a slave

(1 Cor 7:22; Gal 3:28; 1 Tim 6:2; Phlm 16)

The background of the slide is a photograph of a sunset over a field. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a golden glow across the sky and the field. The sky is filled with soft, white clouds. The field in the foreground is dark, with a few trees visible on the right side. A dark, semi-transparent rectangular overlay covers the top and middle portions of the image, providing a background for the text. An orange square is located in the top right corner of the slide.

Transforming power of the Gospel

The gospel transforms relationships when it transforms individuals in those relationships

The dark night of sin gives way to the Gospel's new morning light!
