“The rich young ruler, whose pain was that he had outperformed everyone, acquired great wealth in the process, had a long life ahead of him and still felt a curious emptiness that nothing could seem to fill even that man had a need. Peace. Rest. Hope. Forgiveness, Freedom from affliction. Deliverance. Our sorrows, failures and afflictions are sacred not shameful because they tell the truth about our need for redeeming grace and mercy. These things, Christ alone can give.”
