Sermon: Genesis 8, "When God Remembers"

Hymn of Commission - #312

Benediction

When God "remembers," it means that He acts according to His covenant promises, especially in a way evident to His people. Likewise, God's remembrance in Genesis 8:1 heralds the flood's end. Noah's years spent warning others about Jehovah's judgment have not been in vain; God is preserving His people just as He promised.

Genesis 8

Pastor Tim Cho

June 9, 2024

Big Idea: When God remembers, God delivers

How does God work and how should we respond?

1. God’s work: God faithfully delivers according to his promises
(vv. 1-5)
2. Our Response: We must wait patiently for his direction (vv. 6-15)
3. God’s work: God gives new life (vv. 16-19)
4. Our Response: We must respond in faith (vv. 20-22)
