Hebrews 1:1-4, "The Word Revealed," Pastor Tim Cho

Ice Breaker: How are you like one of your parents?

Dig:

1. The writer compares Jesus both to prophets and to angels. How is He like them? How is He different?

2. How does Jesus compare with God in terms of activity, authority, and relationship? Given the context that the book's writer is addressing Hebrew Christians in the first century, what do you see as significant about this comparison? How is that similar or different for us today?

Apply:

3. How does the Son's nature reveal the Father to you personally?

4. Through the Son's incarnation, what has He accomplished for you personally now? How will you celebrate that in the coming weeks?
