Jeremiah 46-51, "The Lord of the Nations," Pastor Tim Cho

Q: Who will bring to account all the evil acts of man and nations?

Big Idea: Yahweh is the sovereign judge whose justice has been fulfilled and will be fulfilled.

Ice Breaker: What image comes to mind when you think of Egypt? Have you visited there? Would you like to visit there? Why or why not?

Dig:

1. As you read these chapters, complete the following table:

Passage	Nation	Named Cities	Their crime(s)	Their punishment	Any good news for them	Other Comments
Jeremiah 46	Egypt
Jeremiah 47	Philistia
Jeremiah 48	Moab
Jeremiah 49:1-6	Ammon
49:7-22	Edom
49:23-27	Damascus
49:28-33	Kedar and Hazor
49:34-39	Elam
Jer 50:1-51:64	Babylon

2. Use Bible maps to identify the locations of these nations and principal cities. How do they relate to Israel/Judah geographically? Historically?
3. Review the table. What common themes do you identify? What differences? Other reflections?

Apply:

4. Did these nations ever hear Jeremiah's prophecies about them? If not, then for whose benefit are they intended?
5. Are there any longstanding feuds in your family? What issues do relatives fight over? What punishments do they exact? What is your sense of how God looks at that?
