1 Peter 2:4-10; "Living Stones of Priests," Pastor Tim Cho

Ice Breaker: Of all the houses you've lived in, which is your favorite? Why?

Dig:

1. What parallels does Peter make between Christ's experience and that of his readers? How is Christ the "Cornerstone"? Why would people stumble over the stone rather than build their lives on it?
2. In verse 5, what word picture does Peter use to describe his readers? What does that mean for them practically?
3. In verse 9, what other word pictures does Peter use to describe his readers? What does that mean for them practically?

Apply:

4. In verses 5 and 9-10, insert your name into each description of God's people. How do you feel about that? What will you do about that?
