We just got home from church camp. Good time to be together.

I am feeling stronger every day, and I am back to pretty much full throttle. Our weekly stuff is in full swing. We plan to start some outreach ministries in November. Young men whom we have been training are beginning to put their hands to the plow. Praise God!

Tawny is very well. Strong as ever.

Thank you for praying for us. We are blessed beyond and very grateful for the privilege to serve him. May we all be faithful til he comes.
