Benediction

If in his gifts and benefits [God] were more sparing and close-handed, we should learn to be thankful.... The greater God's gifts and works, the less they are regarded. —Martin Luther

Ephesians 5:19-20

In Ephesians 5:19-20, Paul gives two amazing results of obeying the commands given in verse 18. You will (give):

1) Treasure Our Lord (5:19)

2) Thanks to Our Father (5:20)

- What does it mean to give thanks?
- When do we give thanks?
- For what are we to give thanks?
- How are we to give thanks?
- To whom should we give thanks?

If the majesty of the Giver be considered, nothing that is given shall seem small and of no worth, for that is not a small the thing which is given by the Most High God. —Thomas à Kempis
